We, Fred H. Fick, Frances Fick and

V.L. Hagerty each being severally duly sworn, for himself and herself, depose and say: that that certain personal right of George G. Smith to take water from the premises conveyed by him to the said Ficks on October 23, 1943, and recorded March 12, 1947 in Book 203 at page 329, has been terminated and released and discharged and is no longer of any effect; that the said Smith has contracted to sell the adjoining premises for which the privilege of taking water was reserved to the said V.L. Hagerty who is now in possession of said premises and is taking his water from other sources; that it is mutually understood and agreed by all of said parties that the right to take water from the Fick premises has been terminated and is no longer of any effect.

Frederick H. Fick
