The Grantor reserves to itself, its successors and assigns the right to cross and recross said strip of land at any place on grade or otherwise for any means and for any purpose and to use, maintain, patrol and reconstruct said road for any purpose, in such manner as not unreasonably to interfere with the use of said road by the Government or its authorized users, or cause substantial injury thereto; provided, that during periods when Grantor, its successors and assigns, uses said road, it will perform its share of road maintenance on the portion so used, or shall contribute to the cost of said maintenance, so that its proportionate share (based on the ratio that its hauling in ~~the~~ bears to the total hauled during said period of use) of the cost of maintaining the road to the extent necessary to restore the road to the condition existing at the start of the use will be said or performed.

The Grantor further reserves to itself, its successors and assigns, all timber on said right-of-way, provided that the Government or its timber purchasers shall have the right to cut timber upon the right-of-way to the extent necessary for the construction or betterment of said road. The method of disposal of such timber so cut shall be mutually determined by the Grantor and the Government in advance of actual road construction. Grantor further reserves the right to grow and harvest future forest crops on that portion of said right-of-way not actually used for road purposes.

The rights, privileges and authorities herein granted are for full use and enjoyment by the Government for any and all purposes deemed necessary or desirable in connection with the control, management and administration of the national forest, or the resources thereof, and also for its use therewith, use by the general public.

The rights, privileges and authorities herein granted shall continue as long as used for the purposes granted but if, for a period of five years, the Government or its authorized users shall cease to use the rights, privileges and authorities herein granted for the purposes granted, or shall abandon the use of the easement herein granted, then in any of such events, the rights of the Government shall cease and all rights hereunder shall revert to the holder of the fee title to the lands without any re-entry required.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Grantor has caused this instrument to be executed by its duly authorized officers and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed this 21st day of May, 1960.
