If the mortgage indebtedness is evidenced by more than one note, the mortgagee may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes, or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the mortgagee may elect.

The mortgagor covenants that he will keep the buildings now or hereafter erected on said mortgaged property continuously insured against loss by fire or other hazards, in such companies as the mortgagee may direct, in an amount not less than the face of this mortgage, with loss payable first to the mortgagee to the full amount of said indebtedness and then to the mortgagor; all policies to be held by the mortgagee. Should the mortgagor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the mortgagee may perform them, without waiving any other right or remedy herein given for any such breach; and all expenditures in that behalf shall be secured by this mortgage and shall bear interest in accordance with the terms of a certain promissory note of even date herewith and be repayable by the mortgagor on demand.

In case of default in the payment of any installment of said debt, or of a breach of any of the covenants herein or contained in the application for loan executed by the mortgagor, then the entire debt hereby secured shall, at the mortgagee's option, become immediately due without notice, and this mortgage may be foreclosed.

The mortgagor shall pay the mortgagee a reasonable sum as attorneys fees in any suit which the mortgagee defends or prosecutes to protect the lien hereof or to foreclose this mortgage; and shall pay the costs and disbursements allowed by law and shall pay the cost of searching records and abstracting same; which sums shall be secured hereby and may be included in the decree of foreclosure. Upon bringing action to foreclose this mortgage or at any time while such proceeding is pending, the mortgagee, without notice, may apply for and secure the appointment of a receiver for the mortgaged property or any part thereof and the income, rents and profits therefrom.
