TRUST DEED

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 4th day of March, 19 66, between
J. Robert Harris and Donna J. Harris, husband and wife

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary;

WITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 7 in Block 7 of FAIRVIEW ADDITION NO. 2 to the City of Klamath Falls, Oregon, according to the official plat thereof on file in the records of Klamath County, Oregon

which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all saws, axes, ladders, blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of Fifteen Thousand Seven Hundred & No/100- --

each agreement of the grantor, herein contained and the payment of the sum of $ 15,700.00 Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to the beneficiary or order and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $ 103.25 commencing July: 15 19 66

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when called for, to pay all assessments and other charges levied against said property. The grantor covenants and agrees to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction; to complete all improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to commence from the date of completion of construction of any building or improvement on said premises to promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed by fire or other hazards; to pay all costs incurred by the beneficiary to allow beneficiaries to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to the beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from the beneficiary; to keep said premises in good repair and improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter created upon said property in good repair and to commence improvements on said premises; to keep said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, and to pay the cost of such insurance; to execute and deliver to the beneficiary a sum not less than the original principal of the note or obligation secured by this deed and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with the original policy of insurance in correct form and with the original policy of insurance approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary at least prior to the maturity of the note or obligation secured by this deed; and prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance, if any, to cause the original policy of insurance to be assigned to the beneficiary. If said policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may, at its discretion obtain insurance on said premises and the cost of such insurance shall not be cancellable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

In order to provide regularly for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments or other charges and insurance premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation hereby, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the said assessments and other charges to be payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three months, and also one-thirty-sixth (1/36th) of the insurance premiums payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years; and this trust deed remains in effect, and the principal of the loan required for the several purposes thereof and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan; or, at the option of the beneficiary, the sums so paid shall be applied to the beneficiary in trust for the payment of the said taxes, assessments and other charges when they shall become due and payable.

While the grantor is to pay the taxes, assessments and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same shall begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made by the beneficiary to pay the taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof, and to pay the premiums on the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to charge said amounts required from the principal of the loan, and the necessary interest thereon, to the principal of the loan, in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply for and receive any insurance receipts upon the condition that the insurance company will discharge the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; to pay all costs, taxes and assessments on the trust, including the cost of title search, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred to appear in and defend any suit brought or to be brought for the purpose of asserting the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in any suit brought or to be brought by the trustee, in such cases as may be determined by the court in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in and in such cases as may be determined by the court, in which the beneficiary trustee may appear and in any suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement, (in case of full recovery) or of the certificate of completion (in case of partial recovery), shall constitute sufficient evidence of the indebtedness of the trustee may (A) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (B) join in any application for subdivision of said property; (C) execute any instrument of conveyance or coordination without warranty, all or any part of the property, whether or not it has been otherwise agreed affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (D) reconvey, release or discharge the property, whether or not it has been otherwise agreed, without warranty, all or any part of the property, whether or not it has been otherwise agreed, and the recitals thereof, Trustee's fees for any of the above acts set forth in this paragraph shall be $50.00.

4. As of additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the term of these trusts all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. Until the grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or until the beneficiary shall collect the same, the rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by attorney in fact, enter upon the premises, secure, enter upon and take possession of any and all real and personal property, including the same, and may collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and undistributed, and pay the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary on a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a $5.00 service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the Trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney; (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed; (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority; (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and whenever its context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
