And said mortgagor covenants to and with the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that he is lawfully seized in tee simple of said premises and has a valid, unencumbered title thereto except as above set forth, and will warrant and torever detend the same against all persons; that he will pay said note, principal and interest, according to the terms thereof; that while any part of said note remains unpaid he will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges of every nature which may be levied or assessed against said property, or this mortgage or the note above described, when due and payable and before the same may become delinquent; that he will promptly pay and satisfy any and all liens or encumbrances that are or may become liens on the premises or any part thereof superior to the lien of this mortgage; that he will keep the buildings now on or which hereafter may be erected on the said premises continuously insured against less or damage by fire and such other hazards as the mortgage may from time to time require, in an amount not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this mortgage, in a company or companies acceptable to the mortgage, with loss payable lirst to the mortgage and then to the mortgage as their respective interests may appear; all policies of insurance shall be delivered to the mortgage as soon as insured. Now if the mortgagor shall fall for any reason to procure any such insurance and to deliver said policies to the mortgage and procure the same at mortgagor's expense; that he will keep the buildings and improvements on said premises in good repair and will not commit or suffer any waste of said premises. At the request of the mortgagee, the mortgager shall join with the mortgage, and will pay for filing the same in the proper public office or offices, as well as the cost of all lien searches made by filing officers or searching agencies as may be deemed desirable by the mortgagee.

Now, therefore, it said mortgagor shall keep and perform the covenants herein contained and shall pay said note according to its terms, this conveyance shall be void, but otherwise shall remain in full force as a mortgage to secure the performance of all of said covenants and the payment of said note; it being agreed that a failure to perform any covenant herein, or if a proceeding of any kind be taken to foreclose any lien on said premises or any part thereof, the mortgages shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note or on this mortgage at once due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And if the mortgagor shall fail to pay any taxes or charges or any lien, encumbrance or insurance premium as above provided for, the mortgage may at his option do so, and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, and shall bear interest at the same rate as said note without waiver, however, of any right arising to the mortgage or breach of covenant. And this mortgage may be foreclosed for principal, interest and all sums paid by the mortgage at any time while the mortgagor neglects to repay any sums so paid by the mortgage. In the event of any suit or action being instituted to foreclose this mortgage, the mortgagor agrees to pay all reasonable costs incurred by the mortgage for title reports and title search, all statutory costs and disbursements and such further sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's lees in such suit or action, and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree entered therein mortgagor further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's lees on such appeal, all sums to be secured by the lien of this mortgage and included in the decree of foreclosure.
