which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilation, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all curtains, venetian blinds, floor covering in place, such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of SEVEN THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED AND NO/100 ($ 7,500.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to the beneficiary, or order, and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $ 87.10 commencing September 1, 1967.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments made by one or more of said notes against any payment on one note and/or on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property, conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances, and that the grantor will and shall defend the same against all persons, whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property to keep said property free from all encumbrances, having preference over all other encumbrances, and to cause all buildings, structures or fixtures constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereinafter commenced; to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor; to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during the term of this trust deed, and to furnish information to the beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair; and to commit or suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings, property, and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said premises in good repair; and to pay all taxes, assessments and other charges as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation accrued by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached and with premium paid, to the principal place of business of the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the expiration of the insurance period. Said original policy of insurance is not so tendered that the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancellable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

In order to provide security for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments and other charges and expenses hereinabove set forth, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding twelve months, and also thirty-sixth (1/36th) of the insurance premiums due and payable with respect to said property within each year, while this trust deed remains in effect as estimated and directed by the beneficiary, such sums to be credited to the principal of the loan until required for the several purposes thereof, and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan; or, at the option of the beneficiary, the sums so paid shall be held by the beneficiary in trust as a reserve account, without interest, to pay said premiums, taxes, assessments or other charges when they shall become due and payable.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property or any part thereof before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, who is to pay the same to the insurance carriers, and to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amount shown by the statements submitted to the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to charge said sum to the principal of the loan, to the extent that it may be derived from the property, and to establish for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, and to make such arrangements with the insurance company as the beneficiary may determine.

In addition, the grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary, during the continuance of these trusts, all rents, leases, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located therein. Until grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement hereinunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, leases, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they may be due and payable. Upon default by grantor, the beneficiary may at any time without notice either to person or agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name and otherwise collect all rents, leases and profits, including those past due and unpaid and apply the same to the payment of the principal, interest, operation and continuation of this trust, and to pay the attorney's fee, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such other manner as the beneficiary may determine.

4. On entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary on a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a $5.00 service charge.

6. This is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall designate the time and place of sale and make a reasonable notice and demands evidencing expenditure secured hereby; whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee to sell the grantor's interest in the property and principal sum and the entire amount of the debt under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the default.

8. After the time of any sale, the trustee may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property at public announcement of such sale and reschedule the same and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matter or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the Trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having a recorded lien subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the property, including attorney's fees in the defense of their prior claim. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, the successor shall have all the powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.
