

TRUST DEED

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 27 day of September, 1968, between
PAUL J. LIENAU and DONNA F. LIENAU, husband and wife

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary;

WITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 83 of the supplemental plat of Lots 83 to 86 of Moyina, according to the duly recorded plat on file at the office of the County Clerk, Klamath County, Oregon.

which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from, or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all curtains, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED FIFTY & NO/
$ 25,650.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to the beneficiary or order and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $ 185.45 commencing November 5, 1968.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by note or notes. If the amount secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants and with the trustee and the beneficiary, that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators, shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against all claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the term thereof, and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against the same, to keep said property free from all encumbrances and have no pre-eminence over this trust deed, to complete all buildings in course of construction within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced, to repair and restore all buildings and structures which may be damaged or destroyed and to sue, all costs incurred in so doing, to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at any time during construction, to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such defect, not to remove or destroy any building or structure now or hereafter erected on said premises; to keep all buildings and structures now or hereafter erected on said premises in good repair and to commit or cause no waste of said premises, to keep all buildings, property and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises continually insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, for not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver to the beneficiary in correct form and with premium paid, to the principal place of business of the beneficiary at least one policy of insurance prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If said policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

In order to provide security for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments and other charges, and premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the insurance premiums and other expenses and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding twelve months and thereafter thirty-sixth (1/36th) of the insurance premiums payable with respect to said property for each succeeding three years while this trust deed remains in effect, as estimated and collected by the beneficiary, this sum to be credited to the principal of the loan and required for the payment hereof and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan; or, at the option of the beneficiary, the sum so paid shall be held by the beneficiary in trust as a reserve account, without interest, to pay said premiums, taxes, assessments or other charges when they shall become due.

While the grantor is to pay all and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and all other premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments and other charges and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statement herein submitted by the insurance companies or their representatives, and to charge said amounts to the principal of the loan to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account, if necessary, for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage growing out of defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in case of any loss, to compromise with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts from the negotiations secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other disposition of the property by the beneficiary, after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account fails to meet such indebtedness, the other charges is not sufficient at any time to meet payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and shall, within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, as well as the grantor on demand and shall, within ten days of this trust deed, in its connection, the beneficiary shall have the right, in its discretion to complete and/or improve made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property, to pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title insurance, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred to appear in and defend any action, proceeding purporting to affect the security of the beneficiary or the rights or powers of the beneficiary; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum, to be determined by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear and in any suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the grantor shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend the action or proceedings, and make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money so payable as compensation for such taking, whether in excess of the amount reasonably paid or necessary to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first to any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby, and the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment in full and presentation of this deed and the note for discharge (in case of a reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of any indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting or releasing or creating and restricting thereon, (c) join in a subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (d) convey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantor in any recovery, may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto" and the recitals theron of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the ownership thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be paid by the grantor.

As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of these trusts all rents, issues, royalties and profits from the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. The grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement herein, the grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they may be due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor, however, the beneficiary may collect the same without notice, either to person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of security for the indebtedness, and may enter upon and take possession of said property, or any part thereof, in its own name, sue or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due, and interest and attorney's fees upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, and proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, an aforesaid, shall not entitle to waive any default notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish him/her on a copy of such personal information concerning the purchase or a would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a $5.00 service charge.

Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement herein contained, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery of a written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice shall be certified and acknowledged and filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the trustee shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

6. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the sale, either the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $40.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due if no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

7. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law, following the acceptance of said notice of default and giving of said notice of default, the trustee may sell the property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at any time or times as may be deemed necessary by the trustee and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his/her name as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant, warranty, express or implied. The trustee in the deed of any matter or facts shall not be liable for proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

8. When the trustee sells pursuant to the power provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee and reasonable attorney's fees; (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed; (3) To all other unpaid recorded liens subsequent to the interests of the trustee in the trust deed; and if interests appear in the order of their priority; (4) The surplus, if any, to the holder or the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

9. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to the trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, without consent and without notice to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all powers and duties of the trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to the trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the property or country in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

10. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed or instrument, including in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

11. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a "beneficiary" herein. In construing this deed and whenever it comes so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
