and the other side of the hill is covered with trees and shrubs. The soil is very poor and the vegetation is sparse. The climate is dry and the temperature is high. The people here are mostly farmers and they grow cotton, maize, beans, and other crops. They also raise cattle and sheep. The town has a small market where they sell their produce. There is a river flowing through the valley, which provides water for irrigation and drinking purposes. The town is located at an altitude of about 1000 meters above sea level.
