CALL FOR A PASTOR

Vol. 71 PAGE 7426

The Mt. Laki Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, Oregon
 of S.W. Oregon Presbytery (United) Presbyterian Church

being, on sufficient grounds, well satisfied with the ministerial qualifications of you, John D. Weisinger Jr. and having good hopes from our knowledge of you, that your ministrations in the gospel will be profitable to our spiritual interests, do earnestly call and desire you to undertake the office of pastor (associate-pastor) in said congregation, promising you in the discharge of your duty all proper support, encouragement, and obedience in the Lord. Believing the continuing education of ministers to be essential to good preaching and effective pastoral ministry, and as an incentive to encourage your efforts in this matter, we will, after the conclusion of your first year of your ministry here, offer you two weeks time in addition to vacation away from the parish at full salary provided they be used for academic work at an established educational institution or some equivalent study program approved by the session. The study leave may be accumulated (at the rate of two weeks per year served) to achieve time for a longer period of study. And that you may be free from worldly care and avocations, we, on our part, promise and oblige ourselves to pay you the sum of Six Thousand Five Hundred dollars ($6500.00) yearly in regular payments during the time of your being and continuing the regular pastor (associate-pastor) of this church, together with free use of a manse and 1 month vacation each year, with additional perquisites as follows: * or a manse allowance of $90.00 per month $600.00 per year travel allowance

$700.00 moving expenses - 15% Pension

In addition to which the church will pay $_____ each year for expenses incurred in continuing education. And we agree to pay or continue to pay monthly or quarterly in advance to the Board of Pensions a sum equivalent to that requisite per cent of said salary which may be fixed by the General Assembly of The United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for participation in the United Presbyterian Pension Plan. And we promise and oblige ourselves to review with you the adequacy of this compensation annually, prior to the adoption of the church budget.

In testimony whereof, and in conformity with the action of the congregation directing us to subscribe this call in their behalf, we hereby respectively subscribe our names this 30th day of May, A.D. 1971.
