FORM No. 692—INSTALLMENT NOTE—Survivorship (Oregon UCC) SC

STEVENS NESS LAW FIRM CO. PORTLAND

In construing this mortgage and the said note, the words "survivor" shall include the survivor of the mortgagors, and all grammatical changes shall be made, singular pronoun shall be taken to mean and include the plural, the masculine, the feminine and the neuter, and all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provisions hereof apply equally to corporations and to more than one individual; furthermore, the word "mortgagees" shall be construed to mean the mortgagees named above, if all or both of them be living, and if not, then the survivor or survivors of them, because it is the intention of the parties hereto that the said note and this mortgage shall be held by the said mortgagees as joint tenants with the right of survivorship and not as tenants in common and that on the death of one, the moneys then unpaid on said note as well as all rights and interests herein given to the mortgagees shall vest forthwith in the survivor of them.

The mortgagor warrants that the proceeds of the loan represented by the above described note and this mortgage are:

(a) primarily for mortgagor's personal, family, household or agricultural purposes (see Important Notice below);

(b) for an organization or (even if mortgagor is a natural person) are for business or commercial purposes other than agricultural purposes.

And said mortgagor covenants to and with the mortgagees, and their successors in interest, that he is lawfully seized in fee simple of said premises and has a valid, unencumbered title thereto EXCEPT a prior trust deed for beneficiary, First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Klamath Falls, Oregon, dated Nov. 25, 1963, recorded Dec. 18, 1963, in Mortgage Vol. 220, page 367, to which this mortgage is second and

and will warrant and forever defend the same against all persons, that he will pay said note(s), principal and interest, according to the terms thereof, that while any part of said note(s) remains unpaid he will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges of every nature which may be levied or assessed against said property, or this mortgage or the note(s) above described, when due and payable and before the same may become delinquent, that he will promptly pay and satisfy any and all liens or encumbrances that are or may become liens on the premises or any part thereof, superior to the lien of this mortgage; that he will keep the buildings now on or which may hereafter be erected on the premises insured in favor of the mortgages against loss or damage by fire, with extended coverage, in the sum of $ shall irrevocably vest in a company or companies acceptable to the mortgagees and will have all policies of insurance on said property made payable to the mortgagees as their interest may appear and will deliver all policies of insurance on said premises as soon as insured; that he will keep the buildings and improvements on said premises in good repair and will not commit or suffer any waste of said premises.

Now, therefore, if said mortgagor shall keep and perform the covenants herein contained and shall pay said note(s) according to its terms, this conveyance shall be void, but otherwise shall remain in full force as a mortgage to secure the performance of all of said covenants and the payment of said note(s); if being agreed that if the mortgagor shall fail to make any payment or to perform any covenant herein, or if a proceeding of any kind be taken to foreclose any lien on said premises, or any part thereof, the mortgagees shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note(s) or on this mortgage at once due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And if the mortgage shall fail to pay any taxes or charges or any lien, encumbrance or insurance premium as above provided for, the mortgagees may at their option do so, and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage and shall bear interest at the same rate as said note(s), without waiver, however, of any right arising to the mortgagees for breach of covenant; and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time while the mortgagor neglects to repay any sums so paid by the mortgagees.

In the event of any suit or action being instituted to foreclose this mortgage, the mortgagor agrees to pay all reasonable costs incurred by the mortgagees for title reports and title search, all statutory costs and disbursements and such further sums as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees in such suit or action, and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree entered therein mortgagor further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees on such appeal, all such sums to be secured by the lien of this mortgage and included in the decree of foreclosure.

In case suit or action is commenced to foreclose this mortgage, the court upon motion of the mortgagees, may appoint a receiver to collect the rents and profits arising out of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure and apply the same to the payment of the amount due under the mortgage, first deducting all proper charges and expenses attending the execution of said trust.

Each and all of the covenants and agreements herein contained shall apply to, and bind the heirs, executors, administrators, successors in interest and assigns of said mortgagor and of said mortgagees respectively.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said mortgagor has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.
