RUST DEED

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 12th day of November 1971, between JOHN R. DAVIS, JR. and MARION S. DAVIS, husband and wife

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary; as grantor, William Ganong, Jr., as trustee, and

ITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

1161 May 2001

lot 14 in Block 35 of HOT SPRINGS ADDITION to the City of Klamath Falls, Oregon, according to the official plat thereof on file in the office of the County Clerk, Klamath County, Oregon.

which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, warming and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all awnings, venetian blinds, floor coverings in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of TWENTY THREE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($23,150.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date below, payable to the beneficiary, or order and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $199.75, commencing

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereto by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or parts of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

disbursed, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation covered hereby.

The grantor hereby warrants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property owned by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereby against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the title of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in the discretion to complete

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances, having productive value; this trust shall be complete at completion of construction of the building or buildings mentioned in the will, and thereafter the date of construction is hereinafter commenced, to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact, and to remove, destroy and/or build new improvements where necessary to prevent damage to said property, and improvements hereafter erected upon said property, in good repair and to commit or suffer no waste of said premises, to keep all buildings, property, and improvements any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, restrictions and agreements affecting the use of title, except to pay all taxes, fees and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title, court's fees, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred to appear in and defend any action or proceeding pertaining to effect the security herein or the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee that appear and/or are suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefore an exact statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

- In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceeding to determine the amount of money due him by reason of such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money so payable as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary.

ments or other charges and insurance premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured by the same, an amount equal to one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$ th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges, as well as any premium, which may become due and payable during each twelve months, and also one-thirtieth-sixth ($\frac{1}{36}$ th) of the insurance premiums payable with respect to said property within each successive three years while this trust deed remains in effect, as estimated and directed by the beneficiary, such sum to be credited to the principal of the loan until required for the several purposes herein and shall thereafter be charged to the principal of the loan, and, if at the option of the beneficiary, the same so charged shall be paid by the beneficiary. In least as an expense, administrative, without interest, in part said premiums, taxes, assessments or other charges when they shall become due and payable.

and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the trustee may upon the written request of the beneficiary, cause the grantor to pay at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary to obtain such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of his fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon, (c) join in any subdivision or other arrangement of the property, (d) make no charge herefor; (e) reconvey, without consideration, all or any part of the property. The trustee may do any and all acts necessary to effectuate the above.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest, and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary of this trust. The grantor authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements furnished by the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to charge said sums to the principal of the loan or to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account, if any, established for that purpose. The grantor agrees to keep the beneficiary advised of any changes in the amount of the insurance premium, or for any loss or damage arising out of or defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after

The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary with a form supplied it with such personal information concerning purchaser which would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any amount secured hereby or in performance of any agreement made by the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee the trust deed and all promissory notes and instruments evidencing obligations secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's expenses) in fees not exceeding $50.00 each other than such portion of the principal as would then be due due to default secured and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving notice of sale of the trust property, and place fixed by him in and notice of sale either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied, received in the sale, or any other written facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to its successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor of successors and trustee under this trust or any successive trust or power of attorney. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record which, when recorded, shall be filed in the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such actual or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
