FINAL JUDGMENT
OF DIVORCE

In this cause an interlocutory judgment was entered on August 27, 1969 19 , adjudging that plaintiff was entitled to a divorce from defendant, and more than one year having expired in accordance with Section 132 Civil Code, and no appeal having been taken from said judgment, and no motion for a new trial having been granted and the action not having been dismissed;

Now, upon the plaintiff's motion, it is adjudged that plaintiff be and is granted a final judgment of divorce from defendant and that the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, dissolved.

It is further ordered and adjudged that all of the provisions of the interlocutory judgment be and the same are hereby made binding on the parties affected thereby the same as if herein set forth in full, and that wherein said interlocutory judgment relates to the property of the parties hereto, said property be and the same is hereby assigned in accordance with the terms thereof to the parties therein declared to be entitled thereto, and wherein said interlocutory judgment makes provision for restoration of the maiden name of the wife or the name under which she was married, the said maiden name of the wife or the name under which she was married is hereby restored as in said interlocutory judgment provided.
