which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights, and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus; equipment and fixtures, together with all awnings, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of TEN THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED & NO/100--
(10,800.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date, here-with, payable to the

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another,

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof, or the date construction is hereafter commenced, to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed, and to pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor to replace any parts or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair; and to commit of suffer now or hereafter erected on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation created by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary and its trustee, by means of insurance policy or policies in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached and with premium paid to the principal place of business of the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If said policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary which insurance shall be noncancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

In order to provide regularly for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments or other charges and insurance premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding twelve months, and also one-thirty-sixth (1/36th) of the insurance premiums due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while this trust deed remains in effect as an easement and security held by the beneficiary, such sums to be credited to the account of the loan until paid off in full for all several purposes thereof and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan; or, at the option of the beneficiary, the sums so paid shall be held by the same, begu to bear interest, and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary as aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property, in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to charge said sums to the trust account, and to withdraw the same, whenever required from the reserve account, if it is established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to pay insurance written on or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipt upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full, or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property or any part thereof; before and payable.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may exercise its option to pay out the sum, and shall have recovered therefrom or shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be responsible to the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In all its connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; to pay all costs, expenses and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title search, as well as other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred, appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all reasonable attorney's fees, including costs of evidence of title, and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear, and in any suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this deed; and all said sums shall be secured by this trust.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

11. It is mutually agreed that:

- In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the power of sale, or otherwise, for non-payment of the debt, or right to commence a proceeding in its own name, or in the name of the corporation, or to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money so payable, as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid and applied upon by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in this instrument, and the same shall be deemed necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance, applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; And the grantor agrees to pay his or her own expense, in taking such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary, in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for enforcement, (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the right of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the sale or transfer of all or any part of the property; (b) join in any amendment, or creating and restricting thereon; (c) join in any amalgamation, other agreement, affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (d) reconvey without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto" and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the fulness thereof. Trustee's fee for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

4. As an additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of these trusts all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. Until grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in case of non-performance of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profit earned prior to default as they come due and payable. Upon any such default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent or by a receiver, be appointed by the court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of all property affected by this deed, and sue for or otherwise collect all rents, issues, royalties and profits arising from those assets unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, to the reduction of attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order and priority as may determine the law.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument. Upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, or in the event of a breach of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee the trust deed and all promissory notes and documents concerning expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so entitled may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby, including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation, attorney's fees and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal which would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser in such form as required by law, conveying the property so sold but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any master or facets of title, exclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. D. When the trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall compute the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney; (2) The obligations secured by the trust deed; (3) To all persons having recorded liens or substitutions of the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority; (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and recordation conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, power and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and its place of recordation, and recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including spouse, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In using this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.
