In order to provide security for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments or other charges, and insurance premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with said indebtedness, monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of this trust deed or obligation, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges and payable with respect to said property within each successive twelve month period, and one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the insurance premiums payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while this trust deed remains in effect, as estimated and directed by the beneficiary, such sums to be credited to the principal of the loan and required for the payment of the taxes, assessments and other charges when they shall become due and payable.

The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay said premiums in amounts stated as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown in the statements submitted by the insurance carrier or their representatives, and to charge said sums to the property of the lender or to withdraw the sum which is required from the reserve account if any is established for that purpose. The grantor is not to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance account written up for any loss or damage, provided no defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby agrees to be liable for any loss or damage resulting from any compromise and settle with any insurance company to accept any insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, in computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account or taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time to make payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand is given, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all the expenses therefor, for that purpose, at the rate specified in the note, shall be payable to the grantor, on demand, and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary retains the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises, and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor no annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the power of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to compensation for its own use, appear in or defend any action or proceeding, or to make a compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require the grantor of any portion of the money's payable as compensation for such taking, which sum in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees, shall be held and applied by it first in any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceeding, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees, at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation promptly upon the beneficiary's request.
