TRUST DEED

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 30 day of May, 19 73, between
GRACE KITTY KATT, a single woman

GRACE KITTY KATT, a single woman, as grantor, William Ganong, Jr., as trustee, and FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary;

WITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 14 in Block 210 of MILLS SECOND ADDITION TO THE CITY OF

which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, fixtures, furniture, effects, goods, chattels, rights and privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to, issued, profits, water rights and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to, the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all awnings, venetian blinds, floor coverings, wall coverings, carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($ 8,000.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to the beneficiary or order made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $ 94.00 commencing July 10th 1973.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, until the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

In order to provide regularly for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments or other charges and insurances, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, in addition with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or other instrument, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the sum of the assessments and hereby, an amount equal to one-thirty-sixth (1/36th) of the insurance premiums and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding year, and also one-thirty-sixth (1/36th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years within which such taxes, assessments and other charges are due and payable by the beneficiary, this trust deed remains in effect, as the principal of the loan until required for the sum, sums to be repaid thereon and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan; or, at the option of the beneficiary, the sum, sums to be repaid thereon by the beneficiary in trust as a sinking fund, without interest, to pay said premiums, taxes, assessments and other charges when they shall become due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies covering said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary to pay said taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against any and all taxes, assessments and charges shown by the statements thereof furnished and property in the hands of the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to pay the premiums in the amounts shown on the statements thereof. The grantor agrees to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance policy, and the beneficiary is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any proceeds of such insurance to the satisfaction of the obligations secured by this trust. The beneficiary agrees to compute the amount of the indebtedness for payment of taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against the property by the beneficiary after full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges and they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures therefor shall be a first lien interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable to the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of the deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; to pay all costs, fees and expenses, including the cost of title search, as well as all taxes and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with the enforcement of this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred; to appear in and defend all proceedings brought by the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in connection with the enforcement of this obligation, in any such action or suit brought by the beneficiary or trustee; and all said sums shall be secured by this trust agreement to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust agreement.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, defend or prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceeding, to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the amount repayable as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount repayable as compensation for such taking, and attorney's fees necessarily paid required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by it in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary or incurred by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings and the balance applied upon the indebtedness so incurred and the grantor agrees, shall be at its own expense, to take all necessary action and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for encumbrance, (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the discharge of the property, the Trustee shall be bound to join in granting and consenting to the making of any map or plat of said property; (c) join in granting and consenting to the making of any deed, mortgage, lease, conveyance, or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (d) reconvey to the grantor or his heirs, assigns, or assigns, the property, with all its rights and warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons" listed in the deed and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truth thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

8. As an additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of the trusts of this deed, rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property hereinafter described, and by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. Until the said rents, issues, royalties and profits are paid to beneficiary in full, the grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, and the performance of any agreement hereunder, and the grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they may be due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary shall have the right to cause the rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, to be paid to the beneficiary. The beneficiary hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of all the property, or any part thereof, in its own name sue for or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and to apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary on a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recordation of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement.

9. When the Trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the order of their priority. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein, in construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.
