GENERAL GUIDANCE

- 1. Advice of counsel. As a power of attorney represents the designation of another individual to act on behalf of the grantor of the power as his agent or Attorney-in-Fact, one should be executed only after a legal assistance officer or a private attorney has explained to the grantor (and when feasible the grantee) the legal consequences of the execution of such a document. There is no military requirement for anyone to execute a power of attorney. The need for one, if any, is entirely personal. All powers of attorney should be prepared by a legal assistance officer or private attorney and executed under his supervision.
- 2. Termination. Because powers of attorney of indefinite duration can be difficult to revoke, it is important to express that the power will terminate at a specified time, or upon the happening of a specific event.
- 3. Witnesses and Acknowledgement. Although it is not always necessary, the better practice is to have the grantor's signature witnessed by three witnesses and acknowledged by an authorized official (See AFR 110-6). Whenever possible, the acknowledgment should be by a notary public when accomplished in the United States and by a U. S. consul when accomplished abroad. In many states a power of attorney to convey lands or any interest therein must be acknowledged and witnessed like a deed.
- 4. Federal Income Tax Returns. Internal Revenue Form 936 permits a person to designate another to prepare and sign his income tax return or declaration of estimated taxes. Internal Revenue Form 935 is recommended if husband or wife wishes to authorize the other to file a joint return or declaration of estimated taxes.
- 5. U. S. Savings Bonds and Notes. Under current U. S. Treasury Department regulations, servicemen, civilian employees of the Federal Government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or employees of the American Red Cross, when serving outside the continental United States, may authorize another person to redeem their U. S. Savings Bonds or Notes. A power of attorney, general or special, which contains such language as "this power expressly includes the authority to endorse and cash United States Savings Bonds and Notes" is sufficient authorization, as is an air letter or a letter and the envelope in which it came, clearly indicating the owner's intent that his bonds or notes be so redeemed. If the owner desires to limit the authority to specific bonds or notes, he must give their serial numbers including alphabetical prefix and suffix. Evidence that owner is in fact serving outside the continental United States may be supplied by a letter and the envelope in which it came or by a letter from a superior officer who is in a position to know the owner's present duty assignment. The bonds, or notes, together with the power of attorney, or letter authorizing redemption, and evidence that the grantor is serving outside the continental United States, must be submitted for redemption to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, or to the Bureau of the Public Debt, Division of Loans and Currency Branch, 536 South Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois 60605, or to the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Securities Division, Washington, D. C. 20220.
