

WHEREAS, Philip D. Jackson was, in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath, convicted in April 1954, of the crime of Burglary, and sentenced to one year at Oregon State Penitentiary, and was, in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath, convicted in July 1956, of the crime of Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor, and sentenced to serve a probationary period; and was, in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath, convicted in February 1960, of the crime of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, and sentenced to three years at Oregon State Penitentiary; and

WHEREAS, a substantial period of time has passed since Philip D. Jackson was last involved in unlawful conduct, and during that period of time he has established a home and family; and

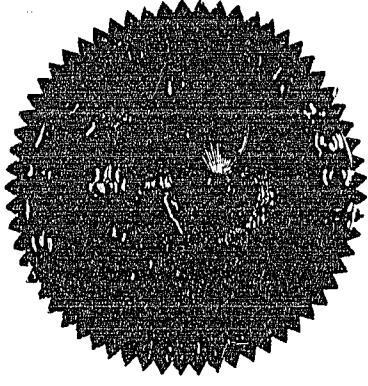

WHEREAS, Philip D. Jackson through his employment and participation in the activities of his community has become a respected and productive citizen; and

WHEREAS, the Oregon Constitution requires that laws for the punishment of crime shall be founded on principles of reformation and rehabilitation, and not of vindictive justice;

NOW, THEREFORE, in view of the foregoing, and by virtue of the authority vested in me, I, TOM McCALL, Governor of the State of Oregon, hereby grant a full pardon to Philip D. Jackson with respect to the crimes enumerated above, restoring to him all the rights and privileges heretofore enjoyed by him under the laws of the state.
