This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereunder by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is satisfied by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any said note or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons whatsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against the premises and property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all permits of construction or construction hereafter constructed on said premises; to repair and restore hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor; to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter erected upon said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said premises in good repair and to commit or suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings, property and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises from time to time free, by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance attached and with approved rate payable clause in favor of the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If the beneficiary obtains insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

In order to provide regularly for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments or other charges and insurance premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding twelve months, and, in the event of any delinquency in the payment of such sums to be credited to the principal of the loan until required for the several purposes thereof and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan or, at the option of the beneficiary, the same so paid shall be held by the beneficiary in trust as a reserve account without interest, to pay said premiums, taxes, assessments or other charges when they shall become due and payable.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, as aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay said taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to charge said sums to the principal of the loan or to withdraw the same which may be required from the reserve account, if any, established for that purpose. The grantor agrees that the beneficiary shall be held harmless for failure to have any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby covenants to and with the trustee, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any proceeds or receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In the event the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said premises as in the note discretion terms seem necessary or advisable.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that in the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceedings, or to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money so payable as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount repayable as compensation for such taking, shall be paid to the beneficiary or incurred by the grantor in such proceedings, and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, shall be applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any party for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, the grantor hereby agrees to execute and deliver to the beneficiary, or its agent or attorney, any consent or creating and restriction thereon, (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or any part of the property.
