2. To complete or restore promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building or improvement which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed thereon, and pay when due, all costs incurred therefor.

3. To comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; if the beneficiary on request, to join in exceeding such financing statements pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code as the beneficiary may require and to pay for filing same in the proper public office or offices, as well as the cost of all lien searches made by filing officers or searching agencies as may be deemed desirable by the beneficiary, unless prohibited by law.

4. To provide and continuously maintain insurance on the buildings now or hereafter erected on the said premises against loss or damage by fire and lightning, and to cause the same to be paid to the beneficiary, in an amount not less than the County Assessors appraised value of the building, written in companies acceptable to the beneficiary, with loss payable to the beneficiary; all policies of insurance shall be subject to the approval of the beneficiary.

inured to the grantor, shall fail for any reason to procure any such insurance and to deliver said policies to the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the expiration of any policy of insurance now or hereafter placed on said buildings, the beneficiary may, at the same time and at grantor's expense, the amount collected under any fire or other insurance policy may be applied by beneficiary upon any indebtedness secured hereunder and in such other use as beneficiary may determine, or at option of beneficiary, the amount so collected, or any part thereof, may be released to grantor. Such application or release shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

now payable to such notice.

It is further agreed that the said assignor shall not be liable for the said assignments and other charges that may be levied or assessed upon or against said property before any part of such taxes, assessments and other charges against said property are delinquent and promptly deliver receipts therefor to be presented as proof of the payment of any such taxes, assessments, and other charges, and shall not be liable for the payment of any such taxes, assessments, and other charges, or for providing beneficiary with funds with which to make such payments, with interest at the rate of eight percent thereon, and the amount so obligated by law, together with the obligations described in paragraph 1, unless previously in default, shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this trust deed, and for such payments, with interest at the rate of eight percent, hereinafter described, as well as the grantor, shall be bound to the same and all such payments shall be made by the payment of the obligation herein described, and nonpayment thereof shall, at the option of the beneficiary, render all sums of money hereinafter advanced immediately due and payable and constitute a breach of the trust herein.

6. To pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust including the cost of title search as well as the other personal expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred, unless prohibited by law.

7. To appoint and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security, right or powers of beneficiary or trustee, and in any such action or proceeding to maintain the temporary or trustee may appear, including any suit for the foreclosure of this mortgage or any other mortgage.

It is mutually agreed that:

The Interior contains a detailed map of the interior of the United States, showing the boundaries of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia. It also shows the location of the several Indian Reservations, and the several Indian Tribes. The map is published by the Department of the Interior, and is sold by the Government Printing Office.

nient of creating any position between (a) job in any institution or other agreement affecting its deal or the lien or charge thereof; (b) payment, gift and learning, of any part of the property. The grantee in any reversionary may be described as the "person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services mentioned in this paragraph shall be not less than $5, unless prohibited by law.

10. Upon any default by said interest provided by law, beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a power of attorney to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security, or the insolvency of the debtor hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name sue for and otherwise collect the same, with interest thereon, and the proceeds of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as may be determined by the court.

11. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder, or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

12. Upon default by grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such an event beneficiary at his election may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage in the manner provided by law for mortgages and foreclosures or direct the trustee to foreclose this trust deed by advertisement and sale. In either event the beneficiary, or the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his or their notice of default and his election to sell the said described real property to satisfy the indebtedness secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall sell the same and place of sale, give notice thereof as required by law and proceed to foreclose this trust deed in the manner provided by law.

Therefore, this trust is deemed to be provided in ORS 86.740 to 86.745, trustee for the trust, and default at any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trust, or if no date is set by the trustee, on the date of the trust, ORS 86.750, may pay to the beneficiary or to the other person so privileged by ORS 86.750, the entire amount then due under the terms of the trust document. Specifically, the secured liability including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50 each, not then due but due within such portion of the principal as would, when event of default, be due and receivable, and thereby cure the default, in

14. Indemnity—The one shall be held on the day and at the time and place at which the estate is sold, in the office of sale. The trustee may sell said property either in one parcel or in several parcels, and shall sell the parcel or parcels at auction to the highest bidder for ready cash at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser an deed in form of a bill of sale containing the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty. The fee of the deed shall be paid by the purchaser. The proceeds in full of the sale shall be deposited with the trustee, and the trustee shall retain the same until the purchase money is paid in full. The receipts in the deed of any manner of fact shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee, but including the attorney for the trustee, shall be permitted to be present at the sale.

15. When making trust pursuant to the powers provided herein, trustee shall have the discretion to make any of the following:

- (1) the payment of moneys to (a) the expenses of trust, including the conveyance of the trust, and a reasonable charge by trustee's attorney;
- (2) to the obligation secured by the trust deed;
- (3) to all persons having interests or claims in the interest of the trust in the trust deed or their records in the order of their priority and (4) the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For every person permitted by law to beneficiary from time to time appoint a successor or successors in any estate named herein or to any estate therein appointed hereunder, upon such appointment, and without the necessity of any further instrument, the power shall be vested with all full powers and effect conferred upon any trustee or executor or appointee hereunder. Such each appointment and substitution shall be in full force and effect.

11. In the event of a contingent reference to this trust deed and the purpose of the same, the same shall be in the office of the County Clerk or Recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor or successors.

12. Whichever decedent this trust when this deed was executed and without the necessity of any further instrument, shall be deemed to be substituted as trustee hereunder and shall have the same powers and authority as the trustee hereunder, whether any other act of trust of any kind or proceeding in which the trustee hereunder or his or her estate shall be in any manner such action or proceeding is brought by trust.
