 A.T.Clark, Deceased.)

The undersigned Annie M.Clark, surviving wife of A.T. Clark, late of Clarinda, Iowa, deceased, does hereby acknowledge receipt of the assets of said Estate; including assets directly received, and from and through Orley A.Clark and Iva Maud Collins, as Executors; and including possession and control of the real estate described in the Inventory; and of the notes and securities described in the Inventory; and of the household and Hotel furniture, equipment and supplies, therein described; also the cash balances in Bank, being at this time, as of October 22nd, 1932, the sum of Fifteen Hundred Fifty-one Dollars and Seventy cents ($1551.70); all for my use, benefit, control and income therefrom, during my natural lifetime, or so long as I shall remain a widow; and with power of disposal thereof under the terms of the Last Will and Testament of A.T.Clark, Deceased; it being understood that the residue thereof, upon my death or remarriage, shall be for disposition and distribution by said Executors, among the five beneficiaries named in said Last Will and Testament.

Further, I do hereby waive all further Notice of Hearing on First Report of said Executors; all claims and charges against the Estate having been paid up to this date; and insofar as the said Executors, Orley A.Clark and Iva Maud Collins, or either of them, may continue in charge and control of said assets, they may do so personally, at my request, and for my use and benefit during my lifetime; and without the necessity of any accounting to the Court.

Signed at CLARINDA, October 1932.

Annie M. Clark.
