Will and Testament

I, Iva Maud Collins, a resident of Page County, Iowa, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Will and Testament, revoking any Will I have heretofore made.

Item 1.

I direct that out of the proceeds of my estate not declared exempt by law, all the expenses of my last illness and burial and all of my just personal debts shall first be paid.

Item 2.

My husband, Thomas Roy Collins, having been seriously injured in an automobile accident on May 30, 1954 and being incapacitated and bedfast since that time, it is my desire that my son, Robert Roy Collins, Des Moines, Iowa, be appointed guardian of his person and his property. Although I have been caring for my husband in our home, I fully realize it may be necessary for him to be moved to a nursing home for proper care.

Item 3.

I give and bequeath unto my children, Thomas Clark Collins of Coral Gables, Florida, and Robert Roy Collins of Des Moines, Iowa, all household furniture and equipment, including my personal belongings and jewelry. They may distribute any such property which they deem suitable for keepsakes among close relatives and friends as they feel should be remembered, leaving such distribution entirely to their judgment and desires.

Item 4.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, whether real, personal or mixed, and wherever situated of which I may be the owner or be entitled to, I do hereby give, bequeath and devise unto my husband, Thomas Roy Collins, for and during his lifetime, with remainder to my sons, Thomas and Robert, share and share alike, and in the event that either of my sons should die leaving surviving issue, before this Item of my Will becomes effective, then such issue shall take the share which would otherwise have gone to such deceased son.

Item 5.

I nominate and appoint my son, Robert Roy Collins, as Executor of this Will and I request that he be exempted from filing a bond while serving in such capacity.

In Witness Whereof, I have signed my name at Clarinda, Iowa, on this 12th day of December, 1956.
