SIXTH:- I do hereby give, devise and bequeath, unto the Trustee hereinafter named in this Will, but in trust for the uses and purposes set forth or mentioned in this Paragraph,- all of my United States Government Bonds; the same to be held until maturity, and then to be reinvested in United States Government Bonds, and thus invested and reinvested; and to this trust fund will be added sooner or later, securities or proceeds thereof, and proceeds of the residue of my estate, hereinafter described, (being from another trust fund for the protection of my parents and brother Ernest), then also to be invested and reinvested by said Trustee, in United States Government Bonds as a part of this fund; and, from and after the time of my death, the Trustee shall collect and pay the income from all of said Government Bonds, semi-annually as provided in the Bonds, between and among my five brothers and sisters, to-wit:- Fred M. Clark, now of Savannah, Missouri; Bert T. Clark, now of Chillicothe, Missouri; Iva Maude Collins, now of Clarinda, Iowa; Orloff A. Clark, now of Albia, Iowa; and Amy H. Lindsey, now of Glendale, California; equally, share and share alike; or to their heirs at law; and in the year 1940, on or about the first day of April, 1940, and after the death of both of my parents, and my brother Ernest, all of said Bonds and fund, or the proceeds thereof, shall be equally divided, share and share alike, between and among the same five brothers and sisters heretofore named as beneficiaries in this Paragraph, or their heirs at law; it being my direction that such distribution shall be made in 1940, provided that my parents and my brother Ernest have previously departed this life, but otherwise, shall be postponed until after their death; however, if my brother Ernest J. Clark, who is now a patient in the hospital at Clarinda, Iowa, should get well and be discharged from the hospital, prior to the year 1940, and be then living, such distribution shall then be made in 1940, share
