

and share alike, between and among all of my brothers and sisters, the six brothers and sisters named in this Paragraph.

SEVENTH:- I do hereby give, devise and bequeath all of my other securities, bonds, stocks, and personal property of any nature, including jewelry and personal effects, and all of my other estate or property, both real and personal, (being all of the residue of my separate estate excepting only my Government Bonds), unto the Trustee hereinafter named in this Will, but in trust for the uses and purposes set forth or mentioned in this Paragraph; all of such real estate and personal property, (exclusive of stocks, bonds and securities), and including jewelry and personal effects, shall be sold by such Trustee, soon after my death, at such prices and terms as my Trustee shall deem for the best interests of my estate; and the proceeds thereof shall be invested in United States Government Bonds; and as any of such other bonds, stocks, and securities are collected, being a part of this trust fund, the same shall also be reinvested in United States Government Bonds; all of which to be kept invested, and reinvested, by said Trustee, during the lifetime of my parents, Absalom T. Clark and Annie M. Clark, and my brother Ernest J. Clark, all now of Clarinda, Iowa, and during the lifetime of the survivor of them; the income to be paid semi-annually to my father and mother, or the survivor of them, so long as either of them may live; and after the death of my parents, the Trustee shall use and pay such income, to any one of my brothers or sisters, as it may deem fit and proper, for the use, maintenance, support, and comfort of my brother Ernest J. Clark, so long as he may live; this provision is made notwithstanding the fact that I know and realize that my father and mother, while they live, and afterwards my brothers and sisters, will make ample provision for the support and comfort of Ernest. After the death of my father and mother, and my brother Ernest, then the Trustee shall transfer the remaining funds and securities held in trust under this Paragraph, adding the same to the funds and trust estate described in the previous paragraph of this Will, for the uses and purposes therein described.
