TRUST DEED

THIS TRUST DEED made this 7th day of October 1974, between EVELYN L. HARRIS, a single woman, WILLIAM R. NOBLE and KOKO NOBLE, husband and wife, as grantor, William Gannong, Jr., as trustee, and FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary;

WITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 15 in Block 4 of FIRST ADDITION TO TONATRE HOMES, Klamath County, Oregon.

which said described real property does not exceed three acres, together with all and singular the appurtenances, easements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights and other rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all curtains, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in ranges, dishwashers and other built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED AND ($18,400.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to the beneficiary of order and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $500.00 commencing November 1, 1974.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes; if the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon one note, in part, or any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons whatsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances having pre-existed over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or already constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof, the date of construction is measured; to repair and restore promptly and in a good workmanlike manner any building or improvement, said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor; to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary, within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact, not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property; to keep buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair and to correct or suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings, property and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation created by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary to do the original policy of insurance, correct form and with approved loss payable clause, favor of the beneficiary, and with premium paid to the principal place of business of the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If said policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

In order to provide regularly for the prompt payment of said taxes, assessments or other charges and insurance premiums, the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, together with and in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the taxes, assessments and other charges due and payable with respect to said property, within each succeeding month, and also one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years, while this trust deed remains in effect, as estimated and directed by the beneficiary, such sums to be credited to the principal of the loan until required for the several purposes thereof and shall thereupon be charged to the principal of the loan; or, at the option of the beneficiary, the sums so paid shall be held by the beneficiary in trust as a reserve account; without interest, to pay said taxes, assessments or other charges when they shall become due and payable.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, and the grantor agrees to pay to the beneficiary, to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed upon said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives, and to charge said sums to the principal of the loan or to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in the event to hold the beneficiary responsible for any loss or damage, arising out of or for any defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, in computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after the same begin to bear interest, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In the event of any default by the grantor in the payment of any indebtedness secured by this trust, all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this trust, all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this trust, all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property located thereon. Until the performance of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness herein secured, enter upon and take possession of the property affected by this trust, all rents, issues, royalties and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expense of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and to such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering up and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, leases and profits, or the payment of other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any fault or notice of default hereunder, or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary of a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchase as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any amount secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may sue on the trust deed secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall file a copy duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and release the same from the obligation thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each), other than the sum portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the grantor and said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either in whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder in cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at the time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public anouncement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The signature in the deed of any master or factis shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the trustee acts pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and reasonable charge by the attorney; (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed; (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interest of the grantor in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority; (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the new trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon a trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed is duly executed and acknowledged and made a public record, as provided by law. This trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed, trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to injuries to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall include the grantor and owner including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named in this instrument, in construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the singular gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the plural number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
