If the mortgage indebtedness is evidenced by more than one note, the mortgagee may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes, or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the mortgagee may elect.

The mortgagor covenants that he will keep the buildings now on or hereafter erected on said mortgaged property continuously insured against loss by fire or other hazards, in such companies as the mortgagor may direct, in an amount not less than the face of this mortgage, with loss payable first to the mortgagee to the full amount of said indebtedness, and then to the mortgagor, all policies to be held by the mortgagee. The mortgagor hereby assigns to the mortgagee all right in all policies of insurance carried upon said property and in case of loss or damage to the property insured, the mortgagor hereby appoints the mortgagee as his agent to settle and adjust such loss or damage and to apply the proceeds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to payment of said indebtedness. The mortgagor agrees to pay, when due, all taxes, assessments, and charges of every kind levied or assessed against said premises, or upon the fixtures or the note or the indebtedness which it secures or any encumbrance in connection therewith or any other lien which may be adjudged to prior to the lien of this mortgage or which becomes a prior lien by operation of law; and to pay premium on any life insurance policy which may be assigned as further security to mortgagee; that for the purpose of providing for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments and governmental charges levied or assessed against the mortgaged property and insurance premiums while any part of the indebtedness secured hereby remains unpaid, the mortgagor will pay to the mortgagee on the date installments on principal and interest an amount equal to 1/12 of said ready charge. No interest shall be paid after payment on said amount, and said amounts are hereby pledged to mortgagee as additional security for the payment of this mortgage and the note hereby secured.

Should the mortgagor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the mortgagee may perform them, without waiving any other right or remedy herein given for any such breach, and all expenditures in that behalf shall be secured by this mortgage and shall bear interest in accordance with the terms of a certain promissory note of even date herewith, and be repayable by the mortgagor on demand.

In case of default in the payment of any installment of said debt, or of a breach of any of the covenants herein or contained in the application for loan executed by the mortgagor, then the entire debt hereby secured shall, at the mortgagee's option, become immediately due without notice, and this mortgage may be foreclosed.
