Less that portion lying within the right of way of the U.S.R.S.
C-4 Lateral.

which said described real property is not currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes.

together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all awnings, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum shades and built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may have by virtue of the performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of THIRTY-EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NO/100 ($38,000.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date hereinafter payable to the beneficiary or order and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $300.96 commencing

March 10, 1977.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed over and above more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of the notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances; and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title; that he or his heirs or executors shall not commit any waste or damage to the property or to any part thereof; and that he will not commit any waste or damage to the property or to any part thereof.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay and note according to the terms hereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances, having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor; to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or material unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said property; to keep all buildings and improvements on said property in good repair and to submit on suffer no waste of land, timber, water, fuel, oil, gas, coal, all personal property and improvements now or hereafter created on said premises continuously insured against loss, fire and other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary, with a premium paid to the primary insurance company of the beneficiary at least fifteen days before the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If the policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancellable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing security for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges, and interest accrued thereon, the above described property is insured for the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while this trust deed is in effect, as estimated and directed by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay to the grantor interest on said amounts at a rate not less than the rate authorized to be paid by banks on their open passbook accounts minus 8/4 of 1%. If such rate is less than 4%, the rate at which it is paid shall be 4%. Interest shall be computed on the average amount carried in the account and shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting to the excess account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies on said property, such amounts are to be made through the trustee, as follows: The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property, as shown by the statements theron furnished by the collector, and to pay premiums on all insurance policies on said property, as shown by the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives and to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account to be established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy; and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, in such amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full for upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the beneficiary. If any uninsured reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time, the beneficiary may demand payment of the same and the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at any time carry out the same and its expenditures therefor shall directly interest the note specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection the beneficiary shall have the right, in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions which may affect the property to pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title search, as well as other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred to appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear in any suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefore an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

(1) In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in, do, and take any action, or to make any compensation arrangement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, require that all or any portion of the money so payable for such taking which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees that it is not necessary in obtaining such compensation, previously upon the beneficiary's request.

(2) At any time and from time to time, upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of its account, and the grantor for an assignment (in case of a partial conveyance) or cancellation, without affecting the liability of any party for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any mortgage or flat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any conveyance may be described as the "person or persons legally entitled thereto" and the recitals theron of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $3.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of this trust all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. Until grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, or the performance of any agreement herein, grantor shall have the right to collect all rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may, at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name and for or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of collection and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, royalties, or other amounts or on the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and default application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary on a form supplied by him, personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in payment of any amount due under this instrument, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the above property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the grantor shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustees shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privy thereto, may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $60.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant of title express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matter of facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligations secured by the trust deed. (3) To any premium paid by the grantor. (4) Subsequent to the interests of the holder of the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority. (5) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon the trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each and every appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust, when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to note any such hecto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "Beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledges, of this note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein, notwithstanding this deed and whenever the context so requires, the singular number includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
