THIS TRUST DEED, made this 11th day of October 1976 between EVERETT J. FINE and HELEN A. FINE, husband and wife, as grantor, William Ganong, Jr., as trustee, and
FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary;

WITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 40, ELMWOOD PARK, Klamath County, Oregon.

276 OCT 13 1976

which said described real property is not currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all awnings, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NO 100/100 DOLLARS ($12,000.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith payable to the beneficiary or order and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $ 98.76 commencing November 20, 1976.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein, to the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are herein clear and free of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against the same, to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair any restoration, promptly and in good workmanlike manner, any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged, destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor to the beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such defect; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair and to cause no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings, fixtures and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other means that the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation created by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached thereto, at least premium paid, to the principal place of business of such policy of insurance. If said policy of insurance is not so issued, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing, regularly, for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property and insurance premium while the indebtedness secured hereby is in excess of 80% of the lesser of the original purchase price of the property at the time the loan was made or the beneficiary's original unpaid value of the property at the time the loan was made, grantor will pay to the beneficiary in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest, payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, monthly installments on principal and interest are payable in amount equal to 1/12 of the total amount of principal and interest due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding 12 months and also 1/36 of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while the Trustee is in effect as estimated and directed by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay to the grantor interest on said amounts at a rate not less than the highest rate authorized to be paid by banks or their open passbook accounts minus 8/4%. If such rate is less than 4%, the rate of interest paid shall be 4%. Interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance in the account and shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting the escrow account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property or any part thereof before the same begin to bear or accrue, and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such premiums are to be made through the beneficiary, as follows: grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed by the grantor, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amount shown on the statements thereof furnished by the grantor, and to collect the same, and to withdraw the sum which may be required from the reserve account in respect of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating and restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed on the lien or charge hereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantor in any reconveyance may be described as the "person" or persons legally entitled to the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of these trusts all rentals, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and any personal property located thereon. Until grantor shall die or in the event of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the probability of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name, and collect rents, issues, royalties and profits therefrom, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, leases and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policy, or any compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary on a form supplied by the trustee information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in non-performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell said property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privy thereto may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal which would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the receipt of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale until any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed and the facts or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney; (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed; (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority; (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder upon such appointment and without consent of the trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and franchises contained in any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged in manner public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to intres to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including his wife, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a "beneficiary" herein. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
