This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a memorandum or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto from the claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property to keep and property free from all encumbrances which pre-existed over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to said beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to damage or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair and to commit or suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings and property and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the original principal sum of the note or obligation, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached and with premium paid to the principal place of business of the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of any renewal policy of insurance. 10 and policy of insurance not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary which insurance shall be non-cancellable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing, regularly, for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property and insurance, while the indebtedness secured hereby is in excess of 80% of the lesser of the original purchase price paid by the grantor at the time the loan was made, or the beneficiary's original appraisal value of the property at the time the loan was made, grantor will pay to the beneficiary in addition to the regular payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby on the date installments on principal and interest, and payable in an amount equal to 1/12 of the taxes, assessments, and other charges, including also 1/10 of the insurance premium payable with each succeeding 1/12 month period, and also 1/10 of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property, within each succeeding three years while the Trust Deed is in effect as established and directed by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay to the grantor interest, said amounts at a rate not less than the highest rate authorized to be paid banks on their open passbook accounts minus 3 1/4 of 1%, and such interest is less than 4% of the rate of interest paid, shall be 4%. Interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance of the account and shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting to the escrow account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest, and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, as aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements rendered furnished by the collector, of all taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers of their representatives and to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account, if any, established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary liable for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the escrow account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such demands as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor, and demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an account of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence a proceeding in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceeding, or to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money so received be paid to it as compensation for such taking, which amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceeding, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it toward payment of reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance so received by the beneficiary shall be paid to the beneficiary; and the grantor agrees to its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as may be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of all fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating and restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto" and the recordation of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of these trusts, all rents, issues, royalties, and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon, the grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property, or any part thereof, in its own name, sue for or otherwise collect all the rents, issues and profits, including its name past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and/or insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of such notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and instruments evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby, including costs and expenses actually incurred in advertising the same of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each; other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as one or more separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, to the public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied, recitals in the deed of any matter or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the Trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as their interest appears in the order of their priority. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed heretofore. Such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing a reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which instrument, recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending and unrecorded other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party; unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, insures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.
