event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by deliver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the value of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property, or any part thereof in its name, sue for or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reason-

After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby, including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the default.
