

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 20th day of December 1976, between DAVID R. BLACK AND FRANCES D. BLACK, Husband and Wife, as grantor, William Ganong, Jr., as trustee, and FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary:

WITNESSETH:

The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 99 of First Addition to Casitas, SAVING AND EXCEPTING therefrom the North 10 Feet conveyed to Klamath County for road purposes, according to the official plat thereof on file in the office of the County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon.

which said described real property is not currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise appertaining to the above described premises and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all curtains, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire, for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of THREE HUNDRED AND NOVEMTY EIGHT DOLLARS ($327.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date heretounto payable to the beneficiary of record and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $160.15 commencing

JANUARY 15 1977

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or note. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary, that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title, thereby against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor further agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner all building or improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property, and to do any and every thing when due, all taxes during construction, to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials manufactured to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair and to conform thereto to no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said premises conveniently insured against loss or damage, at such rates and premiums as the beneficiary may from time to time require, not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary, and to pay the premium paid to the principal agent or insurance company, less the amount of premium paid to the principal agent or insurance company for the period of 80 days prior to the date of notice date of the original policy of insurance. If the original insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may, in its own discretion, obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be noncancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing security for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied against the said property, and to insure payment of the indebtedness, the grantor, in payment of 80% of the amount of the original premium paid by the grantor at the time the loan was made, the beneficiary's original principal value of the property at the time the loan was made, grantor will pay to the beneficiary in addition to the monthly payment of principal and interest, payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, on the date first mentioned, an amount equal to 1/13 of the total assessments and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding 13 months and also 1/13 of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while the trustee continues to effect an entitlement and/or directed by the beneficiary, beneficiary may, in its discretion, require grantor to pay the premium to the insurance company, less the amount of premium paid by the grantor, to the beneficiary. If such rate of interest is less than 10%, the rate of interest paid shall be 10%. Interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance of the account and shall be paid quarterly by the grantor by sending to the trustee account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and due to pay premium on all insurance policies held by the grantor, and to be made through the trustee, the grantor, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any note, assessment and other charges levied or incurred by the grantor in the amounts set forth in the statements furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premium in the amounts shown in the statements submitted by the insurance collector or their representative and to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in event to hold the trustee responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage resulting out of a defect in any insurance policy and the beneficiary is authorized in the event of any loss, to compute and settle with any insurance company, and pay such insurance respects upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, in an amount equal to the insurance fee imposed and calculated in full accordance with the terms of the insurance policy.

acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If any unauthorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not maintained by the trustee, the trustee shall pay the fee for the payment of such charges, and the beneficiary shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may sue for and recover the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same and all expenses, attorney fees and interest on the amount expended by the beneficiary shall be repayable by the grantor. If the grantor shall be secured by the title of this trust deed, in this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its sole discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property, and all costs and expenses of the same, including the cost of title search, as well as other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred to appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees to a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear and in any suit brought by the beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all judgments shall be recovered by the trustee.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefore a annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceeding, or to make any compromise or arrangement concerning such taking and to receive the compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount of the amount of the amount to be paid to the beneficiary by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such procedure, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby, and the grantor agrees at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such documents as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly after the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note or encumbrance in case of title or other interests in the property, the trustee shall make available to the beneficiary any or all of said property, (b) join in any assignment or creation and restriction thereon, (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting the deed or the lien or charge hereon; (d) resurvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantor in any recovery may be described as the person or persons legally entitled thereto, and the recitals hereof of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee need for any of the above acts, and the grantor shall be liable.

3. As an additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of these trusts all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any interest or property created hereunder, grantor shall default in the payment of any taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges levied against the property, the grantor shall have the right to collect all amounts, lands, royalties and profits earned prior to default by the grantor due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may, at any time without notice either in person, by agent or by receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of security for the indebtedness, hereby assume title upon any taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges levied against the property, or any part thereof in its own name for or otherwise behalf of the beneficiary, including those paid by the grantor and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, to the payment of the principal and interest and any unpaid fees, and to such other as the beneficiary may determine.

of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act taken pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiaries on a form supplied by such persons information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, or in performance of any obligation, the trustee may exercise his right to sell the property immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all proscriptory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustees may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement as such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The trustee in the deed of any man or fact shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall pay the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the extent of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary, containing reference to this trust deed and a statement of reason why such recordation is necessary. A copy of such record or record of the authority of someone in whom the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made public record, as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, insures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledges, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
