And it is understood and agreed between said parties that time is of the essence of this contract, and in case the buyer shall fail to make the payments above required, or any of them, punctually within ten days of the time limited therefor, to keep any agreement herein contained, then the seller at his option shall have the following rights: (1) to cancel this contract null and void; (2) to declare the whole unpaid principal balance, plus purchase price with the interest thereon at once due and payable and/or (3) to foreclose this contract by suit in equity, and in any of such cases, all rights and interest created or then existing in favor of the buyer in against the seller hereunder shall utterly cease and determine and the right to the possession of the premises above described and all other rights acquired by the buyer hereunder shall revert to the seller. And the seller without any act of re-entry, or any other act of sale, either to be performed and without any notice to the buyer of return, reclamation or compensation for monies paid on account of the purchase of said property, absolutely, fully and perfectly as if this contract and such payments had never been made; and in case of default all payments theretofore made on this contract are to be retained by and belong to said seller as the agreed and payable rent of said premises up to the time of such default. And the said seller, in case of such default, shall have the right immediately, or at any time thereafter, to enter upon the land aforesaid, without any process of law, and take immediate possession thereof, together with all the improvements and appurtenances thereon or thereto belonging.

The buyer further agrees that failure by the seller at any time to require performance by the buyer of any provision hereof shall in no way affect his right hereunder to enforce the same, notwithstanding any waiver by said seller of any breach of any provision hereof to be held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of any such provision, or as a waiver of the provision itself.

It is further agreed that the Sellers shall construct a dirt based road on the easement situated along the South boundary of the described parcel on or before May 20, 1978. If they have not done so by that date, the Buyer at his option, may complete said construction and thereby reduce the balance owed on his land sale contract by the costs incurred, labor and materials.

The true and actual consideration paid for this transfer, stated in terms of dollars, is $8,000.00. (However, the mutual consideration provided for in this instrument is given or provided which is in addition to the consideration indicated which.)

In case suit or action is instituted to foreclose this contract or to enforce any of the provisions hereof, the buyer agrees to pay such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed plaintiff in said suit or action and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree of the trial court, the buyer further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees on such appeal.

In construing this contract, it is understood that the seller or the buyer may be more than one person; that if the context so requires, the singular pronoun shall be taken to mean and include the plural, the feminine and the neuter, and that generally all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed, and implied to make the provisions hereof apply equally to corporations and to individuals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said parties have executed this instrument in duplicate; if either of the undersigned is a corporation, it has caused its corporate name to be signed and its corporate seal affixed hereto by its officers duly authorized thereto by order of its board of directors.
