hereby being made; the said first mortgage was given to secure a note for the principal sum of $19,350.00; the unpaid principal balance thereof on the date of the execution of this instrument is $ and no more; interest thereon is paid to 19; said prior mortgage and the obligations secured thereby hereinafter, for brevity, are called simply "first mortgage".

and that he will warrant and forever defend the same against all persons; further, that he will do and perform all things required of him and pay all obligations due or to become due under the terms of said first mortgage as well as the note secured hereby, principal and interest, according to the terms thereof; that while any part of the note secured hereby remains unpaid he will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges of every nature which may be levied or assessed against said property, or this mortgage or the note secured hereby, when due and payable and before the same become delinquent; that he will promptly pay and satisfy any and all liens or encumbrances that are or may become liens on the premises or any part thereof superior to the lien of this mortgage; that he will keep the buildings now on or which hereafter may be erected on the said premises continuously insured against loss or damage by fire

In the event any personal property is part of the security for this mortgage, then at the request of the mortgagee, the mortgagor shall join with the mortgagee in executing one or more financing statements pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code, in form satisfactory to the mortgagee, and will pay for filing the same in the proper public office or offices, as well as the cost of all lien searches made by filing officers or searching agencies as may be deemed desirable by the mortgagee.

Now, therefore, it said mortgagor shall keep and perform the covenants herein contained and shall pay all obligations secured by said first mortgage as well as the note secured hereby according to its terms, this conveyance shall be void, but otherwise shall remain in full force as a mortgage to secure the performance of all of said covenants and the payments of the note secured hereby; it being agreed that a failure to perform any covenant herein, or of a proceeding of any kind be taken to foreclose any lien on said premises or any part thereof, the mortgagee shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note or on this mortgage at once due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And if the mortgagor shall fail to pay any taxes or charges or any lien, encumbrance or insurance premium as above provided for, or fail to do or perform anything required of him by said first mortgage, the mortgagee herein, at his option, shall have the right to make such payments and to do and perform the acts required of and the mortgagor under said first mortgage; and any payment so made, together with the cost of such performance shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, and shall bear interest at the same rate as the note secured hereby without waiver, however, of any right arising to the mortgagee for breach of covenant. And this mortgage may be foreclosed for principal, interest and all sums paid by the mortgagee at any time while the mortgagor neglects to repay any sums so paid by the mortgagee. In the event of any suit or action being instituted to foreclose this mortgage, the mortgagor agrees to pay all reasonable costs incurred by the mortgagee for title reports and title search, all statutory costs and disbursements and such further sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees in such suit or action, and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree entered therein, mortgagor further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees on such appeal, all such sums to be secured by the lien of this mortgage and included in the decree of foreclosure.

Each and all of the covenants and agreements herein contained shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said mortgagor and of said mortgagee respectively.

In case suit or action is commenced to foreclose this mortgage, the Court may, upon motion of the mortgagee, appoint a receiver to collect the rents and profits arising out of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure, and apply the same, after first deducting all of said receiver's proper charges and expenses, to the payment of the amount due under this mortgage.
