beneficiary or order, and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $256.40 commencing
October 20, 1977.

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or parts of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary, that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances, and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons, whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay, said note, according to the terms thereof, and to pay all taxes, assessments, and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date of this trust deed; to repair any damage to said property promptly and in a good workmanlike manner; and building or improvement on said property which may be caused or destroyed, and to pay, when due, all costs incurred by the grantor to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements so hereafter erected, upon said premises, in a good repair; and to permit and suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in amounts not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached thereto, at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of said insurance, at least premium paid to the principal place of business of the insurance company, and to obtain a noncancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy, thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing regularly for the payment of taxes of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property, and insurance premium, while the indebtedness secured hereby is in excess of 80% of the lesser of the original principal amount paid by the grantor at the time the loan was made, or the then current appraisal value of the property at the time the loan was made, the grantor will pay to the beneficiary, in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, the due installments on principal and interest are payable in an amount equal to 1/12 of the taxes, assessments, and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding 12 months and also 1/30 of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while this trust deed remains in force, the grantor effect as estimated and directed by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay the grantor interest on said amount at a rate not less than one percent per month, authorized to be paid by bank on their open deposit account, or at 8% if such rate is less than 4%, the rate of interest paid shall be 4%. Interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance in the account and shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting to the credit account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to accrue, interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, all payments are to be made through the beneficiary, and the grantor, and the beneficiary, authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts shown by the statements thereof, furnished by the collector, of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives and to withdraw the sum which may be required from the reserve account, any sum established for that purpose. The grantor agrees to no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written, or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to receive such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed, for the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full, or upon sale of other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be paid to the indebtedness. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the same to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all its expenditures thereto, including interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; to pay all costs, expenses and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title search, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred to appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the title hereof or the rights or powers of the beneficiary, and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of title, title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be awarded by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear and in any suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor, an annual statement of account, but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action of proceeding to take any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking, and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money's worth so arising, and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the amount repayable as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceeding, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs, and expenses, and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceeding, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees, at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of fees and presentation of this deed and the note for entire or in part (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in any subordination, assignment or creating and restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property; and (e) any act or omission which may be described in the power of attorney duly executed thereto, and which may be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of this trust, all rents, royalties and profits of the property affected by this trust, and of any personal property located thereon. Until such time as the grantor makes the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, or in the performance of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time, without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any property or any particular instrument, take possession of the property for or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits including those past due and unpaid, and apply the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

...the letting upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, leases or profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

8. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property to which beneficiary on a written notice of sale and information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

9. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all or any portion of the beneficiary immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notices of default and demands for payment, in which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee the trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

10. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the sale, the grantor or other person so involved shall pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby, (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

11. After the lapse of time which may then be required by law following the recording of the notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed, of any matters or facts, shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

12. When the Trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as the interest of the trustee in the order of their priority. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor or the trust deed or to his successors in interest entitled to such surplus.

13. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustees appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed herein. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by a written instrument executed by the beneficiary containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

14. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record, as provided by law. Trustee is obligated to notify any party interested in the property under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

15. This deed applies to, binds to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note secured hereby, whether or not the name of the beneficiary is contained in the note and whenever the context so requires, the instrument herein includes the feminine and/or neuter and the singular number includes the plural.
