4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, leases and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful manner, in the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustees may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, containing the property so sold, but without any covenants or warranties express or implied. The recitals in the deed of covenants or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness of same, in any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.
