This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may stand hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others holding an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by notes or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary, that he will keep and, pay free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed, to complete all buildings in course of construction or erection commenced on said premises within six months from the date of record or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair and restore promptly and in a good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefor; to allow beneficiary to inspect any premises at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or damage any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter erected upon said property in good repair; and to commit or suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings, property and improvements now or hereafter erected on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal amount of the debt or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company acceptable to the beneficiary, and to do all original policies of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached and with premium paid to the principal place of business of the beneficiary, at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. It is agreed that the policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be non-cancellable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing regularly for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property and insurance premium while the indebtedness secured hereby is in excess of 80% of the lesser of the original purchase price paid by the grantor at the time the loan was made or the beneficiary's original appraisal value of the property at the time the loan was made, the grantor will pay to the beneficiary, in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation referred to above, an amount equal to 1/12 on the date installments on principal and interest are payable, and equal to 1/12 on the date installments on principal and interest are payable, and equal to 1/12 on the date of the taxes, assessments, and other charges levied or imposed with respect to said property within each succeeding 12 months and also 1/39 of the insurance premium payable with each succeeding 12 months and also 1/39 of the insurance premium payable with each succeeding three years while this Trust Deed is in effect, to said property within each succeeding three years while this Trust Deed is in effect, as estimated and adjusted by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay to the grantor interest on the unpaid balance at a rate not less than the highest rate authorized to be paid by law on their open passbook accounts minus 3/4 of 1%. If such rate is less than 1/2% the rate of interest paid shall be 4%. Interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance. In the account shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting to the escrow account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, as aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives and to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account if any, established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage resulting out of a defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary may authority to make any such insurance receipts upon the obligation secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the balance in the reserve account is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charge, as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, all costs and expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate set forth in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting the property to pay all costs and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title search, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation, and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred, to defend in and do any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear and in any suit brought by the beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceeding, or to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the amount recoverable by the grantor in such action or proceeding be paid to the beneficiary as compensation for such taking, without deduction of any amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance, so applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees, at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plan of said property; (b) consent to any easement or creating and restricting hereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this trust or the lien or charge hereon; (d) reconvey, without warrant, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons legally entitled thereto" and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. Until grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default, the grantor has the right to cause to be appointed a receiver and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name sue for or otherwise collect the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property to such beneficiary on a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchase as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or his/her personal representative may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby, including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of the notice of default and giving notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his or her fee or record by law conveying the property so sold but without any covenant or warranty expressed or implied in the deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

8. When the trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To expenses of sale and to compensate the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney; (2) To the obligations secured by the trust deed; (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the date of the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority; (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.
