TRUST DEED

IT 4496 01-10977
Vol. M^y Page 21758

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 7th day of November 1977, between MARLON CREED PENDLETON & LAURA ANNE PENDLETON, husband and wife, as grantor, William Sisemore, as trustee, and LAMATH FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States, as beneficiary;

WITNESSETH:

WITNESSETH:
The grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to the trustee, in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 763 in Block 117, MILLS ADDITION to the City of Klamath Falls, according to the official plat thereof on file in the office of the County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon.

which said described real property is not currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes, together with all and singular the appurtenances, tenements, hereditaments, rents, issues, profits, water rights, easements or privileges now or hereafter belonging to, derived from or in anywise pertaining to the above described premises, and all plumbing, lighting, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, refrigerating, watering, and irrigation apparatus, equipment and fixtures, together with all awnings, venetian blinds, floor covering in place such as wall-to-wall carpeting and linoleum, shades and built-in appliances now or hereafter installed in or used in connection with the above described premises, including all interest therein which the grantor has or may hereafter acquire for the purpose of securing performance of each agreement of the grantor herein contained and the payment of the sum of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND AND SIXTY $15,600.00 Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to the beneficiary of and made by the grantor, principal and interest being payable in monthly installments of $ 136.19 commencing December 1, 2001 19 77

This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payment received by it upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charge as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may, at its option, add the same to the indebtedness.

The grantee hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances which the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and when due, taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within fifteen days from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair and restore said property and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement so damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred therefore to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to place all work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvement on or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements in good order, and to make upon said property in good repair; and to commit or suffer no waste of said property.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceeding to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and if it so desires, to appeal from any judgment rendered in any such action.

Such sum, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money payable as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

⁵ At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for cancellation (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating and restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereon; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals therein shall be deemed to apply to the grantee.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear and are also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payment is to be made through the beneficiary, as aforesaid. The grantor hereby agrees that the beneficiary is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts as shown by the statements thereof furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments and other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements of such insurance carriers or their representatives and to withdraw the sums which may be received in the reserve account established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written on for any loss, damage or growing expense of any kind, including fire and insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized to pay any amount of such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust, dead. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or award for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or giving thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustees shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the sale of the property, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and notice of time and place of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him or as directed of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed in form as required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied, or recitals in the deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

9. When the Trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trust deed as follows: (1) To the expenses of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interests of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

10. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein, or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and authority conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and confirmation shall be made by written instrument executed by the beneficiary containing a reference to the original trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the county clerk or recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

11. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made and recorded as provided by law. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party holder of public sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which the trustee, beneficiary, or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the trustee.

12. This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "beneficiary" shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the note or notes, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and in whatever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
