This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned hereafter by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, it may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received directly upon any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor agrees to and with the trustee and the beneficiary, herein, that the said premises and other property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all encumbrances and that the grantor will, and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend the said title thereto against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and to pay all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all building or cause of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months after the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair and renew promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and to pay, when due, all expenses incurred in so repairing to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after notification from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvement constructed hereafter erected upon said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements hereafter erected upon said property in good repair and to commit or suffer no waste of said premises; to keep all buildings, property and improvements on said premises erected on said premises continuously insured, against loss by fire or other causes, until the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal amount of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary, and to deliver the original policy of insurance in correct form and with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached and with premium paid, to the principal place of business of the beneficiary, at least twenty days prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If said policy of insurance is so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be noncancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing regularly for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property and insurance premiums, the indebtedness accrued hereby is in excess of 80% of the lesser of the original purchase price paid by the grantor, or the loan was made, or the beneficiary's original appraisal of the property at the time the loan was made, grantor will pay to the beneficiary in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note, additional sums necessary on the date installments of principal and interest are payable in an amount equal to 1/2 of the taxes, assessments and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each succeeding 12 months and also 1/80 of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while this Trust Deed is in force, to be paid and directed by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay to the grantor interest on said amounts at the rate of the highest rate authorized to be paid by banks on their open passbook accounts minus 3/4 of 1%. If such rate is less than 4%, the rate of interest paid shall be 4% and interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance in the account and shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting to the escrow account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against the property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest, and also to pay any insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, as aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property in the amounts or shown by the statements furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments or other charges, and to pay the amounts in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers on that份保单 and to withdraw the sums which may be required from the reserve account, if any, established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary liable for any failure to have any insurance written for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy and the beneficiary hereby is authorized, in the event of any loss, to communicate and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations set forth in this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale of other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the grantor. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same and make such repairs thereon for the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property, to pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust, including the cost of title search, as well as other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or to appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of the trustee or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of life and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any suit or action proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear and in any suit brought by the beneficiary to foreclose this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in and defend any action or proceeding, or to make any compromise or settlement in connection therewith and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money so payable be compensated for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceeding, to be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceeding and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees to be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of all fees and presentation of this deed and the note for the amount of the debt or all reconveyance, for cancellation, without affecting the liability of the person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any mortgage or other lien on said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating and restriction thereon; (c) join in any subdivision or other agreement affecting the deed or the lien on the property; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantor in the reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons legally entitled to the property" and the recordals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truth and accuracy thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of this trust, all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. Until grantor shall default in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any covenant or condition contained in this trust, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits, and prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of the property, and, in any part thereof, in its own name sue for or otherwise collect the rents, issues, royalties and profits including those past due, and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of collection and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.

6. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not entitle or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

7. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary with a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

8. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may demand all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee or when notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice trustee shall cause to be duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and instruments evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

9. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and all amounts secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding $50.00 each) and then such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

10. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of cure, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, without bid, whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States payable at the place of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed or, if required by law, conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant of warranty or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee but including the grantor and the beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

11. When the trustee or, pursuant to the powers provided herein, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows: (1) To the expense of the sale including the compensation of the trustee, and a reasonable charge by the attorney. (2) To the obligation secured by the trust deed. (3) To all persons having recorded items subsequent to the trustee or the trustee in the trust deed as their interests appear in the order of their priority. (4) The surplus, if any, to the grantor of the trust deed or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

12. For any reason permitted by law, the beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title and rights of the predecessor trustee.
