

"And it is understood and agreed between said parties that time is of the essence of this contract; and in case the buyer shall fail to make the payment option shall have the following rights: (1) to declare this contract null and void; (2) to declare the whole unpaid principal balance of said purchase price with interest thereon at once due and payable; (3) to withdraw funds and other documents from escrow and/or (4) to foreclose this contract by suit, determine and the right to the possession of the premises above described and all other rights acquired by the buyer against the seller hereunder shall utterly cease and determine without any act of re-entry, or any other act of said seller to be performed and without any right of the buyer to return, reclamation or compensation for damages paid on account of the purchase of said property as absolutely, fully and perfectly as if no contract and such payments had never been made; and in case of such default all payments therefore made on this contract are to be retained by and belong to the seller as the agreed and reasonable rent of said property up to the time of such default. And the said seller, in case of such default, shall have the right immediately, or at any time thereafter, to enter upon the land aforesaid, without any process of law, and take immediate possession thereof, together with all the improvements and appurtenances thereto or thereon belonging."

The buyer further agrees that failure by the seller at any time to require performance by the buyer of any provision hereof shall in no way affect his right hereunder to enforce the same, nor shall any waiver by said seller of any breach of any provision hereof be held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of any such provision, or as a waiver of the provision itself.

The true and actual consideration paid for this transfer, stated in terms of dollars, is $ 3500.00.....

In case suit or action is instituted to foreclose this contract or to enforce any provision hereof, the losing party in said suit or action agrees to pay such sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed the prevailing party in said suit or action. If an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree of any trial court, the losing party further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as the prevailing party's attorney's fees on such appeal.

In construing this contract it is understood that the seller or the buyer may be more than one person or a corporation; that if the context so requires, shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provision herein apply equally to corporations and to individuals.

This agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of, as the circumstances may require, not only the immediate parties hereto but their respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors in interest, and assigns as well.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said parties have executed this instrument in triplicate; if either of the undersigned is a corporation, it has caused its corporate name to be signed and its corporate seal affixed hereto by its officers duly authorized thereunto by order of its board of directors.
