This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional money, if any, as may be loaned or advanced by the beneficiary to the grantor or others having an interest in the above described property, which may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received on one note against another, and may pay the principal and interest on any of said notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to and with the trustee and the beneficiary herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this trust deed are free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and charges, and that the grantor will and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend his said title thereto against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

The grantor covenants and agrees to pay said note according to the terms thereof and, when due, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction heretofore constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof; to commence construction hereafter commenced to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed; and, when due, all costs incurred therefor; to allow beneficiary to inspect any property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials satisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises; to keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter constructed on said property in good repair; and to commit or suffer no waste on said premises; to keep all buildings, property and improvements now or hereafter constructed on said premises continuously insured against loss by fire or such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in a sum not less than the original principal sum of the note or obligation secured by this trust deed, in a company or companies acceptable to the beneficiary; and to deliver the original policy of insurance in corporate form with approved loss payable clause in favor of the beneficiary attached, and with premium paid; to the principal place of business of the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the effective date of any such policy of insurance. If the policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may, in its own discretion, obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be noncancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy thus obtained.

That for the purpose of providing regularly for the prompt payment of all taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property and insurance premium while the indebtedness secured hereby is in excess of 50% of the lesser of the original purchase price paid by the grantor at the time the loan was made, or the beneficiary's original appraisal value of the property at the time the loan was made, grantor will pay to the beneficiary in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation secured hereby, the date installments on principal and interest are payable an amount equal to 1/12 of the taxes, assessments, and other charges due and payable with respect to said property within each month ending 12 months and also 1/30 of the insurance premium payable with respect to said property within each succeeding three years while this Trust Deed is in effect as estimated and directed by the beneficiary. Beneficiary shall pay to the grantor interest on said amounts at a rate not exceeding the highest rate authorized to be paid by banks on their open passbook accounts minus 3 1/2 or 1 1/2%. If such rate is less than 4%, the rate of interest shall be 4%. Interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance in the account and shall be paid quarterly to the grantor by crediting to the escrow account the amount of the interest due.

While the grantor is to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such payments are to be made through the beneficiary, as aforesaid. The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay any and all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or imposed against said property, or any part thereof, as shown by the statements, furnished by the collector of such taxes, assessments and other charges, and to pay the insurance premiums in the amounts shown on the statements submitted by the insurance carriers or their representatives and to withdraw the sums which may be drawn from the reserve account, if any, established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in no event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby authorizes, in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with any insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations secured by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or other acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at the time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary upon demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same and all expenses therefore shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be secured by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The grantor further agrees to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; to pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust, including attorney's fees, costs of title search, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation; and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred, to appear and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof, or the rights or powers of the beneficiary or trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the court, in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear, and in any suit brought by beneficiary to collect on this trust deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust deed.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the grantor shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action or proceedings, or to make any compromise or settlement in connection with such taking and, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the money payable as compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amounts required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid by the grantor in such proceedings, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expense and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees, at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's request.

2. At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and punctual observance of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full nonpayment for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property and to granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (b) join in any incorporation or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (c) record, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any receiver, trustee or other holder of any of the property or rights or interests therein, or the rentals therefrom of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truth of this paragraph. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of this trust, all rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon. Until grantor shall default, the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, or in the event of any agreement hereunder, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. Upon any default by the grantor hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and with regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter and take possession of said property, or any part thereof, in its own name sue for or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.
