CASE NUMBER

INTERLOCUTORY JUDGMENT OF
DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

JUN 30 1977
This proceeding was heard on _____ before the Honorable BEN F. RUFFNER
(Date)

Department No. _____

The court acquired jurisdiction of the respondent on Aug. 14, 1976 by:
(Date)

- ☐ Service of process on that date, respondent not having appeared within the time permitted by law.
- ☒ Service of process on that date and respondent having appeared.
- ☐ Respondent on that date having appeared.

The court orders that an interlocutory judgment be entered declaring that the parties are entitled to have their marriage dissolved. This interlocutory judgment does not constitute a final dissolution of marriage and the parties are still married and will be, and neither party may remarry, until a final judgment of dissolution is entered.

The court also orders that, unless both parties file their consent to a dismissal of this proceeding, a final judgment of dissolution be entered upon proper application of either party or on the court's own motion after the expiration of at least six months from the date the court acquired jurisdiction of the respondent. The final judgment shall include such other and further relief as may be necessary to a complete disposition of this proceeding, but entry of the final judgment shall not deprive this court of its jurisdiction over any matter expressly reserved to it in this or the final judgment until a final disposition is made of each such matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Spousal Support: Respondent shall pay to Petitioner as and for spousal support the sum of $125.00 per month, payable one-half (1/2) on the first and one-half (1/2) on the fifteenth of each and every month commencing March 15, 1977 and continuing thereafter until Petitioner's death, remarriage, the sale and close of escrow on the family residence, or further order of the court, whichever event first occurs.
