This trust deed shall further secure the payment of such additional amounts, if any, as may be loaned, borrowed by the beneficiary to the grantor or others bearing no interest on the above described property, as may be evidenced by a note or notes. If the indebtedness secured by this trust deed is evidenced by more than one note, the beneficiary may credit payments received by him upon any of and notes or part of any payment on one note and part on another, as the beneficiary may elect.

The grantor hereby covenants to set forth the grants and the beneficiaries herein that the said premises and property conveyed by this will shall be free and clear of all encumbrances, and that the grantor will, and his heirs, executors and administrators shall warrant and defend the said title (subject

The grantor covenants to agree to pay said note according to the terms thereof and to keep all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property and to keep said property free from all encumbrances having precedence over this trust deed; to complete all buildings in course of construction or hereafter constructed on said premises within six months from the date hereof or the date construction is hereafter commenced; to repair and restore promptly and in good workmanlike manner any building or improvement on said property which may be damaged or destroyed and pay, when due, all costs incurred thereby; to allow beneficiary to inspect said property at all times during construction; to replace any work or materials unsatisfactory to beneficiary within fifteen days after written notice from beneficiary of such fact; not to remove or destroy any building or improvements now or hereafter constructed on said property; to keep all buildings, property and improvements so as to characterize them as good, substantial, commendable, dignified and by fire-resistive material as the beneficiary may from time to time require; to keep in a clean, neat, orderly condition all premises, structures, fixtures and equipment belonging to the original purchase price and to pay all taxes, assessments and other charges levied against said property; to obtain and to keep in force and with adequate loss, liability and property insurance in amounts, form and with provisions paid to the potential losses of the beneficiary; to keep the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the effectiveness date of any such policy of insurance; if said policy of insurance is not so tendered, the beneficiary may in its own discretion obtain insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary, which insurance shall be noncancelable by the grantor during the full term of the policy unless terminated by the grantor upon written notice to the beneficiary; to keep the original purchase price and all expenses thereon constant but that for the purpose of providing regularly for the payment of taxes, assessments, and governmental charges levied or assessed against the above described property and expenses therein while the indebtedness accrued hereby is in excess of 5% of the lesser of the original purchase price paid by the grantor at the time the loan was made or the beneficiary's original appraisal value of the property at the time the loan was made; grantor will pay to the beneficiary in addition to his monthly payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note or obligation accrued hereby by the grantor thereon as stipulated and interest as payable on interest equal to 1/12 of the total, assessments, and taxes charged; and payable this sum to said property when the same is sold or otherwise disposed of by the grantor; to the extent to sell property which shall overyield three years from the time it is first sold in any event to be sold and delivered to the beneficiary, hereinafter referred to as the "grantor"; to pay all taxes and fees that may be levied on the property by any bank or other financial institution holding the title to the property; if such rate is less than 12%, the rate of interest paid shall be 12%; interest shall be computed on the average monthly balance of the account and shall be paid quarterly by the grantor; the grantor shall pay all taxes and fees that may be levied on the property by

While the creditor is to "pay" me and all taxes, headcounts and other charges levied or assessed against said property, or any part thereof, before the same begin to bear interest and also to pay premiums on all insurance policies upon said property, such documents, to be made payable to the beneficiary, as follows: The grantor hereby authorizes the beneficiary to pay my tax bill, all taxes, assessments and other charges levied or assessed against my property, as above, by the municipality whereof, furnished by the collector, with interest at the rate of six percent per annum, to the insurance companies in the amounts recited in the statements submitted by the insurance carriers of their responsibilities and to withdraw the same which may be required from the reserve account if so established for that purpose. The grantor agrees in the event to hold the beneficiary responsible for failure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage growing out of a defect in any insurance policy, and the beneficiary hereby is authorized in the event of any loss, to compromise and settle with my insurance company and to apply any such insurance receipts upon the obligations incurred by this trust deed. In computing the amount of the indebtedness for payment and satisfaction in full or upon sale or otherwise acquisition of the property by the beneficiary after default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If any authorized reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit to the beneficiary above demand, and if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option add the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary shall have the option to carry out the same at his own expense thereafter, all costs and expenses in so doing to be paid by the grantor, as well as the interest and attorney's fees, at the rate or rates specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand and shall be secured by the lien of this trust deed. In this connection, the beneficiary shall have the right in its discretion to complete any improvements made on said premises and also to make such repairs to said property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary or advisable.

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request therefor an annual statement of account but shall not be obligated or required to furnish any further statements of account.

It is mutually agreed that:

In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, the beneficiary shall have the right to commence, prosecute in its own name, appear in or defend any action, proceeding or cause of action, or any proceeding or cause of action, with respect thereto, and if it so elects, to waive that all or any portion of the beneficiary's payable compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the grantor in such proceeding, shall be paid to the beneficiary and applied by it first upon any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby; and the grantor agrees, as its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon the beneficiary's

At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of his fees and presentation of this deed and the facts for examination (in case of full recoverability, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, (a) the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any lease or sale of all said property; (b) the trustee may (a) consent to the removal of any encumbrance or restriction; (c) the trustee may (a) consent to the payment of credit or other obligations; (d) the trustee may (a) consent to the execution of other agreements made by the debtor or the lessee or chargee hereof; (e) recover, without costs, all or any part of the property. The trustee in any recovery, shall be entitled to his reasonable expenses and attorney's fees. The trustee in any recovery, may be described as the "person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals thereof of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be $5.00.

3. As additional security, grantor hereby assigns to beneficiary during the continuance of these tenemental rents, issues, royalties and profits of the property affected by this deed and of any personal property located thereon, until granted shall account to the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby; or in the performance of any agreement heretofore made, grantor shall have the right to collect all such rents, issues, royalties and profits earned prior to default as they become due and payable. If any sum so collected by the grantor, hereunder, the beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property, or any part thereof, in its own name sue for or collect rents, collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as the beneficiary may determine.
