Buyer's Deed:
 When Buyer pays and performs this contract in full, Seller shall give to Buyer, or Buyer's heirs or assigns, a good and sufficient warranty deed conveying good and merchantable title in fee simple, free and clear of encumbrances, liens and restrictions, subject to the restrictions, liens and encumbrances, if any, which are noted on the plat, the regulations and rules of Klamath County, and restrictions of record in the official files of the County Clerk of Klamath County.

Remedies:
 Time is of the essence of this contract and Buyer agrees to promptly make all payments when due and to fully and promptly perform all other obligations of this contract. In the event of default by the Buyer upon any of the terms and conditions contained herein and after 30 days written notice of default by Seller:

(1) Seller may declare this contract terminated and at an end and upon such termination, all of Buyer's right, title and interest in and to the described property shall immediately cease. Seller shall be entitled to the immediate possession of the described property; may forcibly enter and take possession of said property removing Buyer and his effects and all payments theretofore made by Buyer to Seller and improvements or fixtures placed on the described property shall be retained by the Seller as liquidated damages, or in the alternative,

(2) Seller may, at his option, declare the entire unpaid principal balance of the purchase price with interest thereon at once due and payable, and foreclose this contract by strict foreclosure in equity, and upon the filing of such suit all of the Buyer's right, title and interest in and to the above described property shall immediately cease. Seller shall be entitled to the immediate possession of said property; may forcibly enter and take possession of said property removing Buyer and his effects and all payments theretofore made by Buyer to Seller and all improvements or fixtures placed on the described real property shall be retained by the Seller as liquidated damages. Such right to possession in the Seller shall not be deemed inconsistent with the suit for strict foreclosure but shall be in furtherance thereof, and in the event Buyer shall refuse to deliver possession upon the filing of such suit, Buyer, by the execution of this contract, consents to the entry of an interlocutory order granting possession of the premises to the Seller immediately upon the filing of any suit for strict foreclosure without the necessity of the Seller posting a bond or having a receiver appointed, or in the alternative.

(3) Seller shall have the right to declare the entire unpaid principal balance of the purchase price with interest thereon at once due and payable, and in such event, Seller may either bring an action at law for the balance due, thereby waiving the security, or in the alternative, may file suit in equity for such unpaid balance of principal and interest and have the property sold at judicial sale with the proceeds thereof applied to the court costs of such suits, attorney's fees, and the balance due Seller, and may recover a deficiency judgment against the Buyer for any unpaid balance remaining on this contract.

(4) In addition to the above remedies, Seller shall have any and all other remedies under the law.

Payment of Court Cost:
 If suit or action is instituted to enforce any of this contract, the prevailing party shall be entitled to such sums as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees in said suit or action in any court including any appellate court in addition to costs and disbursements provided by statute. Prevailing party shall also recover cost of title report.

Waiver of Breach of Contract:
 The parties agree to that failure by either party at any time to require performance of any provision of this contract shall in no way affect the right to enforce that provision or to hold a waiver of any subsequent breach of any such provision.
