The first party agrees that at his expense and within 30 days from the date hereof, he will furnish unto second party a title insurance policy insuring him an amount equal to said purchase price) marketable title in and to said premises in the first party on or subsequent to the date of this agreement, save and except the usual printed exceptions and the building and other restrictions and easements now of record, if any. First party also agrees that when said purchase price is fully paid and upon request and upon surrender of this agreement, he will deliver a good and sufficient deed conveying said premises in fee simple unto the second party, his heirs and assigns, free and clear of encumbrances as of the date hereof and free and clear of all encumbrances since said date placed, permitted or arising by, through or under first party, excepting, however, the said easements and restrictions and the taxes, municipal fees, water rents and public charges so incurred by the second party and further excepting all liens and encumbrances created by the second party or his assigns.

But in case the second party shall fail to make the payments aforesaid, or any of them, punctually and upon the strict terms and at the times above specified, or fail to keep any of the other terms or conditions of this agreement, time of payment and strict performance being declared to be of the essence of this agreement, then the first party shall have the following rights: (1) to declare this contract null and void; (2) to declare the whole unpaid principal balance of said purchase price with the interest thereon at once due and payable and/or (3) to foreclose this contract by suit in equity, and in case of such suit, all the rights and interest hereby created, or then existing in favor of the second party, derived under this agreement, shall utterly cease and determine, and the premises aforesaid shall revert and revest in the first party without any declaration of forfeiture, or act of re-entry, or without any other act by first party to be performed and without any right of the second party of reclamation or compensation for money paid or for improvements made as absolutely fully and perfectly as if this agreement had never been made.

The true and actual consideration paid for this transfer, stated in terms of dollars, is $ 21,000.00. However, the actual consideration consists of services, other property or value given or promised which is ~~not~~ ~~any~~ ~~consideration~~ ~~which is~~ ~~not~~ ~~any~~ ~~consideration~~.

And in case suit of action is instituted to foreclose this contract or to enforce any of the provisions thereof, second party agrees to pay such sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed plaintiff in said suit or action and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree of such trial court, the buyer further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees on such appeal.

The second party further agrees that failure by the first party at any time to require performance by the second party of any provision hereof shall in no way affect first party's right hereunder to enforce the same, nor shall any waiver by said first party of any breach of any provision hereof be held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach thereof or as a waiver of the provision itself.

In construing this contract it is understood that the first party or the second party may be more than one person; that if the context so requires, the singular pronoun shall be taken to mean and include the plural, the masculine, the feminine and the neuter, and that generally all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provisions herein apply equally to corporations and to individuals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said parties have executed this instrument in duplicate; if either of the undersigned is a corporation, it has caused its corporate name to be signed and its corporate seal affixed hereto by its officers duly authorized thereunto by order of its board of directors.
