between John A. Bruce and Walter J. Winter, an unmarried woman, as Grantor, TRANSAMERICA TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY, a CALIFORNIA CORPORATION as Trustee, and WELLS FARGO REALTY SERVICES, INC., a CALIFORNIA CORPORATION, TRUSTEE as Beneficiary.

WITNESSETH:

Grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to trustee in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 16 in Block 29 of Tract 1113-Oregon Shores-Unit 2 as shown on the map filed on December 9, 1977 in Volume 23, Page 28 of Maps in the office of the County Recorder of said County.

together with all and singular the tenements, appurtenances and all other rights thereto belonging or in anywise now or hereafter appertaining, and the rents, issues and profits thereof and all fixtures now or hereafter attached to or used in connection with said real estate.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF SECURING PERFORMANCE of such agreement of grantor herein contained and payment of the sum of $5000.00 Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to beneficiary or order and made by grantor, the first payment of principal and interest hereof, if not sooner paid, to be due and payable June 25, 1989.

The date of maturity of the debt secured by this instrument is the date, stated above, on which the final installment of said note becomes due and payable. In the event the whole described property, or any part thereof, is sold, conveyed, assigned or alienated by the grantor without first having obtained the written consent of the Trustee, then, at the beneficiary's option, all obligations incurred by this instrument, irrespective of the maturity dates as provided therein, shall become immediately due and payable.

The above described real property is not conveyed, sold, assigned, alienated or encumbered for any other purpose.

To protect the security of this trust deed, the Trustee agrees:

1. To protect, preserve and maintain said property in good condition and repair, not to remove or demolish any building or improvement thereon; not to convert or change any use of said property.

2. To complete or restore promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building or improvement which may be damaged, damaged or destroyed thereon, and pay when due all taxes incurred thereon.

3. To comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; if the beneficiary requests to loan in specie, then the beneficiary shall pay for filing same in the proper public office or offices, as well as the cost of all other charges made by filing offices or recording agencies as may be demanded by the beneficiary.

4. To provide and continuously maintain insurance on the buildings now or hereafter located on the said premises against fire and damage by elements with other insurance as the beneficiary may from time to time require in an amount not less than $100,000.00. The beneficiary shall be entitled to receive the proceeds of such insurance to the beneficiary as soon as received. If the grantor shall fail in any manner to procure any such insurance and to deliver said proceeds to the beneficiary (as first required) then, to the extent of the unpaid balance of the loan, the beneficiary shall be entitled to receive the proceeds of such insurance as soon as received. The amount collected under any fire or other insurance policy may be applied by the beneficiary upon any indebtedness secured hereby and in such order as the beneficiary may determine, or at the option of the beneficiary the entire amount so collected, in any part thereof, may be released to grantor. Such application or release shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any action taken pursuant to such notice.

5. To keep said premises free from construction liens and to pay all taxes, assessments and other charges that may be levied or assessed upon or against said property before any part of such taxes, assessments and other charges become past due or delinquent and promptly deliver receipts therefor to beneficiary; should the grantor fail to make payment of any such taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, fire or other charges payable by grantor, either by direct payment or by providing beneficiary with funds with which to make such payment, beneficiary may, at its option, make payment thereof, and the amount so paid, with interest at the rate set forth in the note secured hereby, together with the obligations described in paragraphs 5 and 7 of this trust deed shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this trust deed, without waiver of any right arising from breach of any of the covenants hereof and for each payment, with interest as aforesaid, the property hereinafter described, as well as the grantor, shall be bound to the same extent that they are bound for the payment of the obligation herein described, and all such payments shall be made immediately due and payable without notice, and the responsibility therefor shall be upon the grantor and the beneficiary shall be entitled to receive the proceeds of such insurance as soon as received.

6. To pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust including the cost of this deed as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with this obligation.

7. To appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security rights or powers of beneficiary in respect, and in any suit, action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear, excluding any suit for the foreclosure of this deed, to pay all costs and expenses, including costs of title and the beneficiary's or trustee's attorney's fees, provided, however, in case the suit is between the grantor and the beneficiary or trustee, the amount of attorney's fees mentioned in this paragraph 7 in all cases shall be fixed by the trial court or by the appellate court if an appeal is taken.

It is mutually agreed that:

8. In the event that any portion of all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, beneficiary shall have the right, if it is desired to require that all or any portion of the amount payable as consideration for such taking, which may be in excess of the amount required to pay all outstanding debts and interests, be paid to beneficiary and applied to its own use, or to the payment of its debts and interests, and the beneficiary shall be entitled to receive the proceeds of such insurance as soon as received.

9. At any time and from time to time upon written request of beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full redemption, for cancellation, without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, trustee may (a) sign or co-sign or make of any map or plat of said property, (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge thereon; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantor in any reconveyance may be described as the "grantee or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services mentioned in this paragraph shall be not less than $5.

10. Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time, with or without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness herein secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name, and may collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same to the costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, subject to paragraph 7 hereof upon any indebtedness secured hereby, in such order as beneficiary may determine.

11. The surviving upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or other insurance or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

12. Upon default by grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such an event, and if the above described real property is currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes, the beneficiary may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity, as a mortgage in the manner provided by law for mortgage foreclosures. However, if said real property is not so currently used, the beneficiary at its election may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage or direct the trustee to foreclose this trust deed by advertisement and sale. In the latter event the beneficiary or the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his written notice of default and his election to sell the said described real property to satisfy the obligations secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale, give notice thereof as then required by law, and proceed to foreclose this trust deed in the manner provided in ORS 86.740 to 86.795.

13. Should the beneficiary elect to foreclose by advertisement and sale then after default or any time prior to five days before the date of sale, the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so privileged by ORS 86.760, may pay to the beneficiary or his successors in interest, respectively, the entire amount then due, under the terms of the trust deed and the obligation secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's fees) and the beneficiary shall receive the balance of the principal of the principal as would not then be due by the said default occurred, and thereby cause the default, in which event all foreclosure proceedings shall be discontinued by the trustee.

14. Otherwise, the sale shall be held on the date and at the time and place designated in the notice of sale. The trustee may sell said property either in one parcel or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels at auction to the highest bidder for cash, ready money at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser his deed, in form as required by law conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters of fact shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including the trustee, but including the grantor and beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

15. When trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (1) the expenses of sale, including the compensation of the trustee and a reasonable charge by trustee's attorney, (2) to the obligation secured by the trust deed, (3) to all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests may appear in the order of such liens, and (4) the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successors or estate entitled to such surplus.

16. For any reason permitted by law beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to the trustee named herein or to any successor trustee authorized hereunder, upon such appointment, and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all the powers and duties conferred upon any trustee hereinafter named or appointed hereunder. Such such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by beneficiary, containing references to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the County Clerk or Recorder of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

17. Trustee accepts this deed upon this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record as required by law. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party herein of pending suit under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by trustee.

The grantor covenants and agrees to and with the beneficiary and those claiming under him, that he is lawfully seized in fee simple of said described real property and has a valid, unencumbered title thereto.

NOTE: The Trust Deed Act provides that the trustee hereunder must be either an attorney, who is an active member of the Oregon State Bar, a bank, trust company or savings and loan association authorized to do business under the laws of Oregon or the United States, a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property of this state, its subdivisions, affiliates, agents or branches, or the United States or any agency thereof.

and that he will warrant and forever defend the same against all persons whomsoever.

The grantor warrants that the proceeds of the loan represented by the above described note and this trust deed are:
(a) primarily for grantor's personal, family, household or agricultural purposes (see Important Notice below);
(b) for an organization, or for a grantor in a natural person, are for business or commercial purposes other than agricultural purposes.

This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, personal representatives, successors and assigns. The term beneficiary shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the contract secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

* IMPORTANT NOTICE: Delete, by lining out, whichever warranty (a) or (b) is not applicable; if warranty (a) is applicable and the beneficiary is a creditor or such word is defined in the Truth-in-Lending Act and Regulation Z, the beneficiary MUST comply with the Act and Regulation by making required disclosures. If compliance with the Act not required, disregard this notice.
