DEED OF TRUST DEED, made this 10 day of May, 1978, betweenWestern Frontiers, TRANAMERICA TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY, a CALIFORNIA CORPORATION as Trustee, and WELLS FARGO REALTY SERVICES, INC., a CALIFORNIA CORPORATION as Beneficiary.

WITNESSETH: STATE OF OREGON,

Grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to trustee in trust, with power of sale, the property in KLAMATH COUNTY, OREGON, described as:

Lot 38 in Block 28 of Tract 1113-Oregon Shores-Unit 2 as shown on the map filed on December 9, 1977 in Volume 21, Page 20 of Maps in the office of the County Recorder of said County.

together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances and all other rights thereunto belonging or in anywise now or hereafter pertaining, and the rents, issues and profits thereof and all fixtures now or hereafter attached to or used in connection with said real estate.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF SECURING PERFORMANCE of each agreement of grantor herein contained and payment of the sum of four thousand five hundred Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to beneficiary or order and made by grantor, the final payment of principal and interest hereof, if not sooner paid, to be due and payable June 1, 1980.

The date of maturity of the debt secured by this instrument is the date, stated above, on which the final payment of said note becomes due and payable. In the event the within described property, or any part thereof, or any interest therein is sold, agreed to be sold, conveyed, assigned or alienated by the grantor without first having obtained the written consent or approval of the beneficiary, then, at the beneficiary's option, all obligations secured by this instrument, irrespective of the maturity dates expressed therein, or herein, shall become immediately due and payable.

The above described real property is not currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes.

To protect the security of this trust deed, grantor agrees:

1. To protect, preserve and maintain said property in good condition and repair, not to remove or demolish any building or improvement thereon, not to commit or permit any waste of said property.

2. To complete or reconstruct, comply and in good and workmanlike manner any building or structure which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed thereon and pay when due all costs incurred therefore.

3. To comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions, and restrictions affecting said property; if the beneficiary so requests, to join in executing such financing statements pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code as the beneficiary may require and to pay for filing same in the proper public office or offices, as well as the cost of all fees, searches made by filing officers or searching agencies as may be deemed desirable by the beneficiary.

4. To provide and continue any insurance on the buildings, may or hereafter erected on the said premises against loss or damage by fire and such other causes as the beneficiary may from time to time require in amounts not less than $100,000.00, and to make such insurance available to the beneficiary, to the general amount, with costs payable to the latter, all policies of insurance shall be delivered to the trustee, at time as insured, if the grantor shall fail for any reason to procure any such insurance and to deliver said policies to the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the expiration of any policy of insurance now or hereafter placed on said buildings, the beneficiary may procure the same at grantor's expense. The amount collected under any fire or other insurance policy may be applied by beneficiary upon any indebtedness secured hereby and in such order as beneficiary may determine, or at option of beneficiary via entire amount so collected, or any part thereof, may be released to grantor. Such application or release shall not cause or worse any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. To keep said premises free from construction liens and to pay all taxes, assessments and other charges that may be levied or assessed upon or against said property before any tax or other taxes, assessments and other charges become payable or delinquent and pre-emptively deliver reports therefor to beneficiary; should the grantor fail to make payment of any taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, fees or similar charges payable by grantor, either by direct payment or by providing beneficiary with funds with which to make such payment, beneficiary may, at its option, make payment thereof and the amount so paid, with interest at the rate set forth in the note secured hereby, together with the obligations described in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this trust deed shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this trust deed, without waiver of any rights arising from breach of any of the covenants herein and for such payments, with interest as aforesaid, the property hereinabove described, as well as the grantor, shall be bound to the same extent that they are bound for the payment of the obligation herein described, and all such payments shall be immediately due and payable without notice, and the nonpayment thereof shall, at the option of the beneficiary, render all sums secured by this trust deed immediately due and payable and constitute a breach of this trust deed.

6. To pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust including the cost of title search as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with this obligation.

7. To appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security rights or powers of beneficiary or trustee; and in any suit, action or proceeding in which the trustee or trustee may appear, including an action for foreclosure of this deed, to pay all costs and expenses of defense, provided, however, in case the suit is between the grantor and the beneficiary or the trustee than the prevailing party shall be entitled to the attorney's fees herein described; the amount of attorney's fees mentioned in this paragraph, in all cases shall be fixed by the trial court or by the appellate court if an appeal is taken.

It is mutually agreed that:

8. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, beneficiary shall have the right, if it so elects, to require that all or any portion of the monies payable in compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees necessarily paid or incurred by grantor in proceedings, shall be paid to beneficiary and applied by him upon and towards costs and expenses and attorney's fees, however, if the trial and appellate courts necessarily pay or incur, by grantor, in such proceedings, and the balance applied upon the same, as provided herein and grantor agrees, at its trust expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon beneficiary's request.

9. At any time and from time to time upon written request of beneficiary, payment of its fees and proctoring of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property, (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the loan or right thereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The parties in any reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals therein of any interests or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services mentioned in this paragraph shall be not less than $5.

10. Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time with due notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees subject to paragraph 7 hereof upon any indebtedness secured hereby, in such order as beneficiary may determine.

11. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or award for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall be done in writing, and a copy of such notice shall be given to the grantor, and the same done pursuant to such notice.

12. Upon default by grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in the performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such an event and if the above described real property is currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes, the beneficiary may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity, as a mortgage in the manner provided by law for mortgage foreclosures. However, if said real property is not so currently used, the beneficiary at his election may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage or direct the trustee to foreclose this trust deed by advertisement and sale. In the latter event the beneficiary or the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his written notice of default and his election to sell the said described real property to satisfy the obligations secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale, give notice thereof as then required by law, and proceed to foreclose this trust deed in the manner provided in ORS 156.740 to 86.755.

13. Should the beneficiary elect to foreclose by advertisement and sale then after default at any time prior to five days before the date set by the trustee for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person so noticed by ORS 86.760, may pay to the beneficiary or his successors in interest, respectively, the entire amount then due, under the terms of the trust deed and the obligation secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding 5% each) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the default, in which event all foreclosure proceedings shall be dismissed by the trustee.

14. Otherwise, the sale shall be held on the date and at the time and place designated in the notice of sale. The trustee may sell property either in one parcel or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels at auction to the highest bidder for cash payable at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser the deed to said property as required by law conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters of fact shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including the trustee, but including the grantor and beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

15. When trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (1) the expenses of sale, including the compensation of the trustee and a reasonable charge by trustee's attorney, (2) to the obligation secured by the trust deed, (3) to all persons having recordable liens subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests may appear in the order of their priority and (4) the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successors in interest entitled to such surplus.

16. For any reason permitted by law beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to this trustee named herein or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, and without any further acts or successive notices, the original trustee shall be relieved of all liability and the duties conferred upon the original trustee shall be assumed by the appointed successor, each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by beneficiary containing reference to this trust deed and its place of record, which, when recorded in the office of the County Clerk or Recorder of the county or country in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

17. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record as provided by law. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by trustee.

The grantor covenants and agrees to and with the beneficiary and those claiming under him, that he is lawfully seized in fee simple of said described real property and has a valid, unencumbered title thereto.

NOTE: The Trust Deed Act provides that the trustee hereunder must be either an attorney, who is an active member of the Oregon State Bar, a bank, trust company or savings and loan association authorized to do business under the laws of Oregon or the United States, a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property of this state, its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents or branches, or the United States or any agency thereof.
