

TRUST. DEED

January _____, 1978, between _____, as Grantor, _____, as Trustee, _____, as Beneficiary.

Grandeur irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to trustee in trust, with power of sale, the property Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances and all other rights thereunto belonging or in anywise incorporeal or hereditament, and the profits, issues and profits thereof and all fixtures now or hereafter attached to or used in connection therewith and the same.

Actual payment of principal and interest hereof, if so secured, shall be due and payable January 28, 1988.
The date of maturity of the debt hereof for this installment is the date, stated above, on which the final installment of said note becomes due and payable. In the event the portion described property, or any part thereof, or any interest therein is sold, agreed to be sold, conveyed, assigned or otherwise disposed of by the grantor without first having obtained the written consent or approval of the beneficiary, then, at the beneficiary's option, all debt now secured by the instrument, irrespective of the maturity dates expressed therein, or herein, shall become immediately due and payable.

of the 20th century. The first of these was the development of the concept of the "social contract" by philosophers such as John Rawls and Immanuel Kant. This concept suggests that individuals agree to a set of rules that govern their behavior in society, and that these rules are based on a mutual understanding of the benefits and costs of different actions. This idea has been used to explain a wide range of social phenomena, from the formation of governments to the behavior of individuals in groups.

19. Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time without notice, without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property and any interest therein, as its own name and on behalf of itself, its heirs and assigns, including those past and unpaid, to collect the rents, interest and profits, including those past and unpaid, and to apply the same to the satisfaction of the indebtedness hereby secured. Beneficiary shall have all the rights and remedies secured hereby, and in such order as beneficiary may deem proper.

13. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of lue and other compensation, damages or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or in any way affect or mature if defaults hereunder or invalidate any act done hereunder and the such interest.

Section 12. Upon death of grantor a payment of any indebtedness secured by trust assets shall be made to any agreed-upon lender(s). The beneficiary may discharge all debts secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such an event the beneficiary shall be deemed to have accepted the indebtedness of the trust and all the above described real property is currently used for agricultural purposes and the above described real property is currently used for agricultural purposes. The beneficiary is granted permission to use the same in the manner provided by law for mortgage loans on agricultural property. If however it said real property is not so currently used, the beneficiary of this discharge may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgagee or assign the interest to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgagee and take the same as a mortgagee. The trustee shall execute and record the deed and the trust deed within ninety days of default and his election to sell the said described real property to satisfy the obligations secured hereby, whereupon the proceeds shall be the terms and place of sale, and the trustee shall execute the deed and the trust deed in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property. The trustee shall execute the deed and the trust deed in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property.

trustee shall pay to the beneficiaries the income by advertisement and sale of the property of the trust, and the trustee shall be authorized to sell the property of the trust at a public sale or otherwise at such time and place as the trustee shall determine, and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the beneficiaries. The trustee shall be authorized to execute any instrument necessary to carry out the purposes of the trust, and the trustee shall be authorized to execute any instrument necessary to carry out the purposes of the trust, and the trustee shall be authorized to execute any instrument necessary to carry out the purposes of the trust.

all such real property shall be sold shall be held on the date and at the time and place designated on the notice of sale. The trustee may sell said property either in one parcel or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels a portion to the highest bidder for cash, payable at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed in forms as required by law, conveyance of the property was sold. But without any reservation of interest or reversion or right of redemption. The outside of the deed of any transfer in fact shall be conclusive proof of the authenticity thereof, along with the deed, including the trustee, but including the trustee, shall be made at the sale.
