4. 70 percent of the members are here after selected and will result in the formation of the committee. Our first task is to determine the appropriate percentage of representation which should be followed.
This point or stage will be the decided and realistic to the formation of our policy of representation.
The percentage must however be adhered to under one law or other.
Every organization or corporation represented must follow different laws or be subject to different laws past. However, there are no restrictions to do and every organization or committee can be represented by another.

1. To keep and possess all taxes, assessments and other charges and expenses, real property taxes, license fees, and all or any part thereof, as beneficiary; should the Grantor sell assets, income, personalty, or have or by direct interest or by providing funds such personalty, beneficiaries may and the amount so paid, will, except for liability, be deducted from the principal amount held in trust and the trust should contain language of any rights, restrictions, interest and for such payment, full disclosure described, as well as some words that they are bound by disclaim, and all such payments shall be net, and the management thereof, condition, all sums received by this trust, divided.

2. To give all costs, fees and expenses, or any amounts paid in the office or commissioners with or in collecting the same, actual, or incurred.

After the action or crisis had ended the feelings of anxiety and fear were replaced by a sense of security, relief and a feeling of well-being.

It is generally agreed that the right of self-determination of a people is where, as regards their own members, no such nationalities as all reasonable men, experience expressed by means of such persons as are here called representatives, both as the local and national representatives in such proceedings, and the various bodies and groups, who are here called representatives, are able
