The policy amount will be enough to pay the entire amount owing on the debt secured by the mortgage or the insurable value of the property, whichever is less, despite any "co-insurance" or similar provision in the policy. The insurance policies will have your standard loss payable endorsement. No one but you has a mortgage or lien on the property, except the following "Permitted Lien(s)":	6.5 If any creditor tries, by legal process, to take money from any bank account any co-borrower or I may have at any of your branches, or any other money or property I may then have coming from you; or 6.6 If any person tries or threatens to foreclose or declare a forfeiture on the property under any land sale contract; or to foreclose any Permitted Lien or other lien on the property.
3.2 I'll pay taxes and any debts that might become a lien on the property, and will keep it free of mortgages and liens, other than yours and the Permitted Liens just described. 3.3 I'll also keep the property in good condition and repair and will prevent the removal of any of the improvements. 3.4 If any of these things agreed to in this Section 3 are	7. Your Rights After Default. After a default you will have following rights and may use any one, or any combination of them, tany time: 7.1 You may declare the entire secured debt immediately due and payable all at once without notice. 7.2 You may collect all or any part of the debt secured by this mortgage directly from any person obligated to pay it.
not done, you may do them and add the cost to the loan. I'll pay the cost of your doing these things whenever you ask, with interest at the highest rate charged on any of the notes that are then secured by this mortgage. You may increase the amount of the payments on the secured debt to include the costs and interest. Even if you do these things, any failure to do them will be a default under Section 6, and you may still use other rights.	7.3 You may foreclose this mortgage under applicable law. 7.4 You may have any rents from the property collected and pay the amount received, over and above costs of collection and other lawful expenses, on the debt secured by this agreement. 7.5 You may use any other rights you have under the law, this mortgage, or other agreements.
