This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

Pacific conducts Home Energy Analyses at the request of its customers to determine the cost-effectiveness of insulation and weatherization based upon average consumption patterns and typical local weather conditions. However, because of the variability and uniqueness of individual energy use, it is not possible to precisely predict the savings that will accrue to any particular individual. Therefore, Pacific, by providing information in good faith concerning the anticipated benefits of insulation and weatherization, or by entering into this agreement, does not warrant that the installation of the insulation and weatherization materials provided for in this agreement will result in savings of money or electrical consumption.

Pacific may petition the appropriate Oregon Legislature to amend current law to allow the Company, rather than individual owner-occupants, to receive the benefit of any tax credit accruing from the installation of energy saving materials provided for herein.

Individual Homeowners (natural persons) shall pay to Pacific, without interest, the actual contract cost of the insulation and weatherization prior to the sale or transfer of any legal or equitable interest in any part of the property, except that in the case of a transfer due to death, such prior to the saie or transfer of any legal or equitable interest in any part of the property, except that in the case of a transfer due to deant, such payment shall be due at the time title of the property is deemed to pass to any other person. Homeowners other than natural persons teorporations, trusts, etc.) shall pay to Pacific, without interest, the actual contract cost of the insulation and weatherization within seven years of the date of this agreement, Homeowners may pay such cost to Pacific at any time prior to the time payment is due.

Homeowners shall notify Pacific in writing of the sale or transfer of any legal or equitable interest in any part of the property, whether it is voluntary or involuntary. Such notice shall be sent as soon as Homeowners know that there will be a sale or transfer, and not later than one week before the exepcted sale or transfer. The notice must include the name of the Homeowners, the address of the property, the name of the person to perore the exepcted sale or transfer. The notice must include the name of the tromeowners, the aduress of the property is being sold or transferred, and the name of any person or company who is acting as a closing agent for the sale or transfer or is otherwise participating in the transaction. Homeowners authorized Pacific to contact any of the persons so named and authorize and direct such persons to pay Pacific any obligations owing under this agreement from any monies which such persons owe to Homeowners.
