The buyer warrants to and covenants with the seller that the real property described in this contract is (A) for a personal use, (B) for an organization or (even if buyer is a natural person) is for business or commercial purposes other than agricultural purposes.

The buyer shall be entitled to possession of said lands on September 15, 1979 and may retain such possession so long as he is not in default under the terms of this contract. The buyer agrees that at all times he will keep the buildings on said premises, now or hereafter erected, in good condition and repair and will not suffer or permit any waste or strip thereof; that he will keep said premises free from mechanics' and all other liens and save the seller harmless therefrom and reimburse seller for all costs and attorney's fees incurred by him in defending against any such liens; that he will pay all taxes hereafter levied against said property, as well as all water, rent, public charges and municipal liens which hereafter lawfully may be imposed upon said premises, all promptly before the same or any part thereof become due, that at buyer's expense, he will insure and keep insured all buildings now or hereafter erected on said premises against loss or damage by fire (with extended coverage) in an amount not less than $ none in a company or companies satisfactory to the seller, with loss payable first to the seller and then to the buyer, as such insurances, water, rents, taxes, or charges or to procure and pay for such insurance, the seller may do so and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this contract and shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid, without waiver, however, of any right arising to the seller for buyer's breach of contract.

The seller agrees that at his expense and within 10 days from the date hereof, he will furnish unto buyer a title insurance policy insuring (in an amount equal to said purchase price) marketable title in and to said premises in the seller or on subsequent to the date of this agreement, and except the usual printed exceptions and the building and other restrictions and easements now of record, the seller also agrees that when said purchase price is fully paid and upon request and upon surrender of this contract, null and void, he will deliver a good and sufficient deed conveying said premises in fee simple unto the buyer, his heirs and assigns, free and clear of all encumbrances as of the date hereof and free and clear of all encumbrances since said date placed, permitted or arising by, through or under seller, excepting, however, the said easements and restrictions and the taxes, municipal liens, water, rents and public charges so assumed by the buyer and further excepting all liens and encumbrances created by the buyer or his assigns. And it is understood and agreed between said parties that time is of the essence of this contract, and in case the buyer shall fail to make the payments above required, or any of them, punctually within ten days of the time limited therefor, or fail to keep any agreement herein contained, then the seller, at his option, shall have the following rights: (1) to declare this contract null and void; (2) to declare the whole unpaid principal balance of said purchase price with the interest thereon at once due and payable; and or (3) to enforce this contract by suit in equity, and in any of such cases, all rights and interests created or then existing in favor of the buyer as against the seller hereunder shall utterly cease and determine and the right to the possession of the premises above described and all other rights acquired by the buyer hereunder shall revert to and revert in said seller without any act of reversion or any other act of said seller to be required; and without any right of the buyer of return, redemption or compensation for moneys paid on account of the purchase of said property, as absolutely, finally and perfectly as if this contract and such payments had never been made; and in case of such default, all payments theretofore made on this contract are to be retained by and belong to said seller as the agreed and reasonable rent of said premises up to the time of such default. And the said seller, in case of such default, shall have the right immediately, or at any time thereafter, to enter upon the land above said, without any process of law, and take immediate possession thereof, together with all the improvements and appurtenances thereon or thereto belonging.

The buyer further agrees that failure by the seller at any time to require performance by the buyer of any provision hereof shall in no way affect his right hereunder to enforce the same, nor shall any waiver by said seller of any breach of any provision hereof be held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of any such provision, or as a waiver of the provision itself.

The true and actual consideration paid for this transfer, stated in terms of dollars, is $ 3,850.00. However, the actual consideration consists of one, includes other property or interest in property, which is a part of the consideration (indicate which):

In case suit or action is instituted to enforce this contract or to enforce any of the provisions hereof, the buyer agrees to pay such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed plaintiff in said suit or action and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree of the trial court, the buyer further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as plaintiff's attorney's fees on such appeal.
